

BULK OF NAZI FORCES LEAVE FLORENCE

Demobilization Law Fight Shifts To House

KILGORE BILL SNOWED UNDER BY SENATORS

States' Systems Of Pay To Jobless Maintained By Heavy Vote

QUICK ACTION LIKELY
Liberalization Drive In Lower Congressional Branch Expected

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12—The battle over demobilization legislation shifted to the house today after the senate, by a vote of 55 to 19, passed the George bill creating an office of demobilization and maintaining integrity of state unemployment compensation systems.

By its action the senate, with southern Democrats and Republicans in the majority, crushingly defeated advocates of expenditure of billions of federal money to maintain purchasing power in the demobilization period.

A drive to liberalize the measure in the house was forecast. Many senators who voted for the bill on final passage declared it was inadequate and expressed hope that the house would revise it.

Sen. Walter E. George (D) Ga., author of the measure, has recommended that the house broaden the state-federal unemployment systems by extending payroll taxes to cover employers who have one or more employees. The tax now affects those with eight or more workers.

To Speed Action
Chairman Robert Doughton (D) N. C., of the house ways and means committee, planned to summon his committee into session early next week to begin consideration of the senate measure.

Rushed through the senate because of the possibility of an early German collapse, the bill is expected to be pushed rapidly in the house.

The measure as passed provides: 1. A federal revolving loan fund to guarantee ability of states to (Continued on Page Two)

MORE RAIDS TO COME, JAPANESE PAPERS WARN

NEW YORK, Aug. 12—Japanese domestic newspapers today warned the home front to expect still more powerful American air raids in the near future.

The Nazi DNB agency, in a summary of the articles heard by the FCC, quoted the Nipponese press as stating: "All raids so far represented only probing attacks carried out by the enemy with the aim of collecting experience for future air attacks on a larger scale."

OUR WEATHER MAN

LOCAL High Friday, 97.
Low Saturday, 59.
Sun rises 6:41 a. m.; sets 8:33 p. m.
Moon rises 1:21 a. m.; sets 3:51 p. m.

TEMPERATURES ELSEWHERE
	High, Low
Akron, O.	85, 71
Albany, N. Y.	81, 68
Bismarck, N. Dak.	81, 69
Buffalo, N. Y.	80, 70
Burlington, Vt.	80, 62
Chicago, Ill.	86, 77
Cincinnati, O.	86, 71
Cleveland, O.	86, 75
Dallas, Tex.	94, 74
Denver, Colo.	90, 58
Detroit, Mich.	89, 79
Indianapolis, Ind.	89, 70
Port Worth, Tex.	100, 80
Huntington, W. Va.	89, 68
Kansas City, Mo.	97, 80
Los Angeles, Cal.	86, 72
Minneapolis, Minn.	86, 74
Minn.-St. Paul, Minn.	83, 72
New Orleans, La.	100, 74
New York, N. Y.	100, 72
Oklahoma City, Okla.	102, 72
Pittsburgh, Pa.	92, 66
St. Louis, Mo.	87, 72
Tulsa, Okla.	97, 72
Washington, D. C.	99, 66

HEADACHE!

LOOKING as though he didn't have a friend in the world, this dejected Nazi soldier is shown seated on an improvised seat behind the barbed wire of a prisoner of war compound in Normandy. He was captured during the American drive into France. (International)

WMC MOVES TO FILL VITAL JOBS

Forced Transfer Planned To Insure Flow Of Urgent Materials

CLEVELAND, Aug. 12—The War Manpower Commission moved today to insure a sufficient flow of "urgent" materials to the armed forces from the key Ohio-Michigan manufacturing area by instituting a new program of worker transfer.

Those two states and Kentucky, which is included in the Fifth region, hold 20 percent of all war supply contracts and produce a higher percentage than that of "urgent" war supplies.

Regional WMC Director Robert C. Goodwin announced that a new plan would be started immediately to provide plants on the urgent list with sufficient help by obtaining the voluntary transfer of male workers from plants producing less critical materials.

His action followed a meeting of the regional labor-management committee, which approved the program and urged measures to safeguard the seniority and re-employment of workers transferred from their regular jobs to plants on the urgent list.

It was indicated that steps would be taken to put "teeth" in the plan by various government (Continued on Page Two)

MUTINY BRINGS DEATH DECREE FOR 12 GREEKS

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 12—Sentence of death was passed today on 12 members of the Greek navy, including one officer, by a court martial dealing with a mutiny on board the Greek destroyer Pindos.

Eight other accused men were sentenced to life imprisonment, two to 20 years each, one to 10 years, two to 3 years, and one acquitted.

One other officer and a warrant officer were sentenced to 15 months each for perjury.

FDR PREPARES DIRECT REPORT ON PACIFIC TRIP

Chief Executive Scheduled For Saturday Evening Radio Appearance

MAY AIR IMPRESSIONS

Victorious Progress Made Against Japan To Be Outlined

SEATTLE, Aug. 12—President Roosevelt completed a three-week personal inspection of the Pacific war theatre today, and, returning again to the U. S. mainland, prepared to make a direct report to the American people on his 10,000-mile voyage to Pearl Harbor and the Aleutians.

The chief executive will speak to the nation by radio at 8 p. m. EWT.

As at San Diego, and during his four-day conference with Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Admiral Chester W. Nimitz and other members of the Pacific high command in Hawaii, Mr. Roosevelt will speak from a military area.

Arrangements were made for the President to make his nationwide Pacific war tour report from the Bremerton Navy yard. A platform was erected in the Navy's huge building and repair installation near Seattle, and it was expected that many of the 70,000 workers in the yard would be on hand to hear the President make his address.

May Use Cruiser

There was a possibility, however, that he might speak from the new heavy cruiser in which he voyaged from San Diego to Pearl Harbor, thence to the re-conquered Aleutian battlegrounds, and then to Seattle.

High point of the President's address was expected to be a report on his firsthand impressions of the Pacific bastions that he visited, the (Continued on Page Two)

SUMMER RESORT FIRE LOSS SET AT HALF MILLION

WILLOWOOD, N. J., Aug. 12—Flames destroyed an entire block of business houses and Summer residences in the heart of Willowood's boardwalk section today, bringing an estimated loss of half a million dollars.

Police Officer Louis Flocca reported one serious casualty, a lesser injury and also many minor casualties among fire fighters.

A man identified as James Murphy, U. S. N., metallism second class, fleet air detachment, Willowood Naval Air Station, was found unconscious near the boardwalk. He suffered a fractured skull and remained unconscious.

The fire was believed to have started about 1 o'clock in the basement of a large restaurant, closed for the night. A theatre, a five-and-ten-cent store and numerous concessions burned, as well as several Summer residences in the back portion of the block.

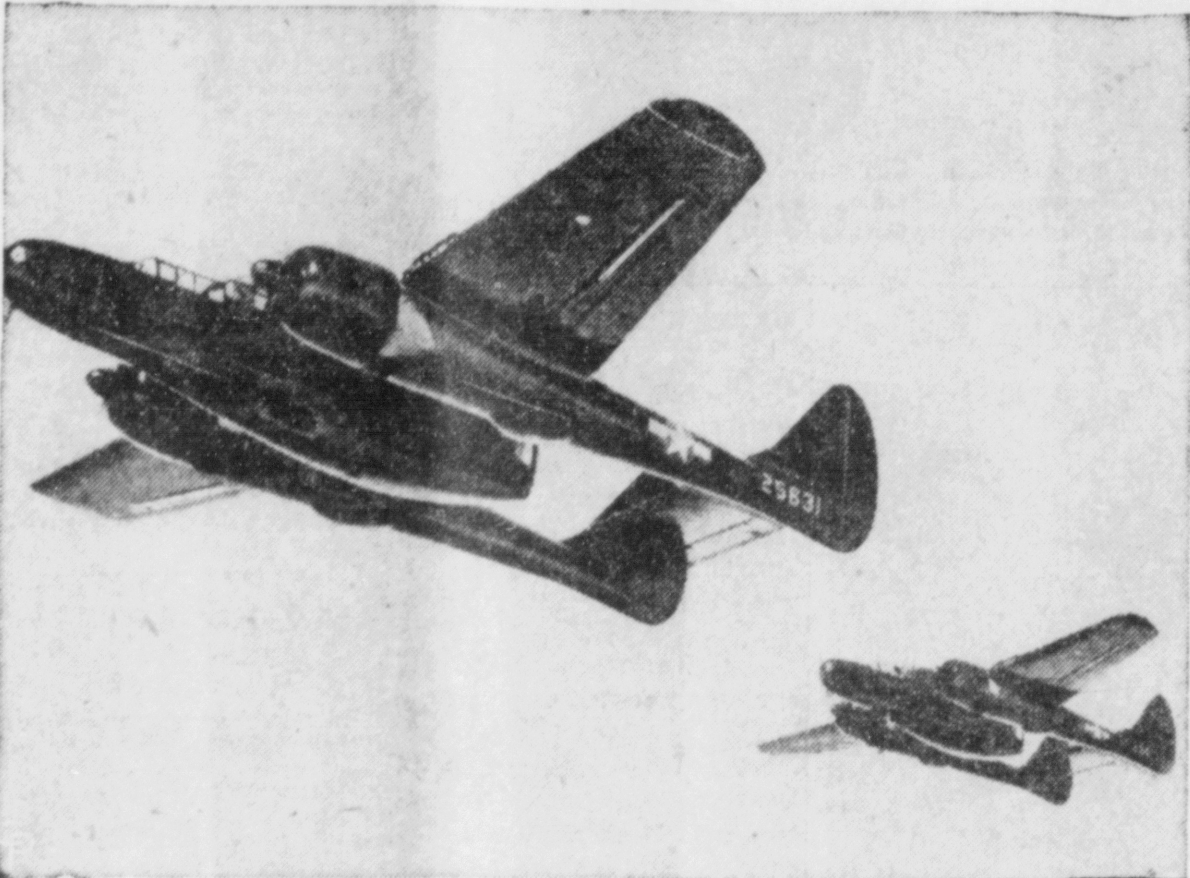

More than 500 firemen from all parts of Cape May county brought the blaze into control in the face of a strong wind.

WAR CRIMINAL HARBORERS MAY FACE SANCTIONS

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 12—The United Nations today had a petition from the American Legion to declare and enforce economic sanctions against any nation that gives sanctuary to international war criminals.

The Legion specified as war criminals "Hitler and his Nazi and Fascist partners, cohorts, satellites and henchmen."

BLACK WIDOW NIGHT FIGHTER IS DEADLY OPPOSITION

NORTHROP BLACK WIDOWS soar gracefully through the sky in test flights daily over Northrop field in Los Angeles. The deadly night interceptors now in increased production, are the world's largest and most powerful pursuit planes and were designed specifically for night fighting. Capable of blasting anything that flies, the plane packs a 20-mm. cannon and 50-cal. machine gun. (International)

MILLIONS LOST IN HARBOR FIRE

New York Piers Scene Of Spectacular Blaze—Blasts Spread Flame

HOBOKEN, Aug. 12—Fire, fed by exploding drums of gasoline, oil and nitro cellulose, an ingredient of smokeless powder, swept three piers of the New York harbor waterfront today and consumed millions of dollars worth of war supplies and equipment.

Pier 4, at Second street, Hoboken, a landmark of the harbor where the giant Leviathan was loaded in the first world war was destroyed. Piers 3 and 6 and a five-block long office and warehouse building were severely damaged.

The fire started at 8 p. m. last night with a tremendous explosion, and it raged virtually unchecked until after midnight.

The first explosion apparently occurred on one of three lighters loading drums at Pier 4. The flames spread rapidly and there were further blasts as the drums of explosive liquids burst from the heat. Roaring columns of flames leaped 250 feet into the sky as fireboats and tugs pulled the three burning lighters into midstream.

An ammunition barge and a Liberty ship also were pulled to safety in midstream by rescue tugs.

Hoboken police said there were no fatalities, but that a dozen men had been injured and removed to St. Mary's hospital.

No accurate estimate of the (Continued on Page Two)

WFA TO MAKE GOOD BIG LOSS BY EGG BUYER

CHICAGO, Aug. 12—Officials of the War Food Administration's regional office in Chicago revealed today that five carloads of privately owned eggs, valued at $20,000 spoiled in transit and would be condemned.

The eggs were in good condition when sold recently by the WFA, E. O. Pollock, regional director, said. However, he revealed, the government will cancel the contract with the purchasers.

Pollock said the eggs came from dry storage where they had been placed early this Summer when cold storage could not be obtained for them.

HITLER MAY TRADE 100 SUBMARINES TO JAPS

LONDON, Aug. 12—With German French west coast submarine lairs becoming untenable as a result of the Allied campaign in France, it is believed that Hitler will trade 100 U-boats to Japan. The London Daily Mail said today,

CHILD BRIDE'S MOTHER FILES SUIT FOR $50,000

BENTON, Ark., Aug. 12—A $50,000 damage suit was on file in Hot Springs county today against W. A. Ragan, 52-year-old husband of a 12-year-old girl, and two other men in connection with the marriage.

The other defendants were Justice of the Peace Ben J. Cox of Benton, and County Clerk W. H. Beeson, of Malvern. Cox performed the marriage after Beeson had issued a license for Ragan to marry the girl, his great niece.

The suit was brought by the girl-wife's mother, Mrs. Maggie Ragan.

ORIENT YOUTH COMMENDED FOR ISLAND GARDEN

FORT RILEY, Kans., Aug. 12—(Special)—Pfc. Paul R. Karn, formerly of Orient, Ohio, now stationed at Camp Funston on the Fort Riley reservation with a field artillery battalion, has received a commendation for his unusual occupation overseas.

Pfc. Karn was commended for "his excellent work as an overseer on a 40 acre garden project supplying fresh vegetables at an overseas post. The fact that the labor used on this project was native women speaking no English made the task much more difficult. His voluntary efforts on this assignment were well executed and not required of a soldier with his rating."

Pfc. Karn was in the Fiji Islands in June 1942; was transferred to Guadalcanal in April 1943; to the Russell Islands, June 1943; to New Georgia, July 1943 then to Bougainville and back to Guadalcanal. He is entitled to wear the Asiatic Pacific campaign ribbon with a bronze star for participation in the Northern Solomon campaign and the American Defense ribbon.

WIDOW GETS BULK OF GEN. TEDDY'S ESTATE

MINEOLA, N. Y., Aug. 12—The will of Brig. Gen. Theodore Roosevelt, eldest son of the late president, who died of a heart ailment while leading his troops in Normandy, July 12, disclosed today that he had left the bulk of his estate to his widow.

No value for the estate was given except the formal estimate of "over $10,000 in real estate and personal property." He left a specific bequest of $2,500 to Consantino Balocco, an employee at his Oyster Bay estate and also $1,200 annually to Margaret E. Henesy, another employee.

U. S. LOSES 24 BATTLE CHIEFS

Stepped-Up Tempo Of War Shown By Deaths Of Admirals, Generals

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12—Indicative of the stepped-up tempo of modern warfare, this nation has lost 12 admirals and 12 generals to date during World War II—apparently the greatest toll of high-ranking officers in any war in American naval or military history.

Navy records disclose that no admirals were killed in action or died during the first world war, the Spanish-American war or the Civil War, while only one army general lost his life in World War I. He was Brig. Gen. Edward Sigerfoos, who died in October, 1918, of wounds suffered in action.

More than half of the 24 high-ranking officers who died since Pearl Harbor met death in air-plane crashes. Nine army generals and four admirals lost their lives in planes since Pearl Harbor, a casualty list survey shows.

First American admiral of flag rank to be killed in action in the history of the navy was Rear Admiral Isaac C. Kidd, 57, who lost his life aboard the U.S.S. Arizona during the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor Dec. 7, 1941.

Eleven More Die

Since that time, the navy's top-flight admiral list has been cut by 11 more deaths—either by enemy action, airplane crashes, illness, suicide or by loss overboard in heavy weather.

The war department lists three (Continued on Page Two)

RICH MAN BUYS STOLEN BABY BUGGY; JAILED

CHICAGO, Aug. 12—Bernard Distenfeld, 21, who has an $18,000 a month income, was in the house of correction today serving a ten-day sentence for buying a stolen baby buggy for $1.

Distenfeld told Judge Harold G. Ward of criminal court he bought the buggy from a 15-year-old boy and did not know it was stolen. The judge upheld the ten-day sentence imposed earlier by Judge Gibson E. Gorman and remanded him to jail to serve the term.

The youth lived at the Exchange hotel which he said was one of a score of pieces of property on the South Side owned by him.

STAR, AUTHOR TO WED

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 12—Aileen Pringle, former film star, and James Cain, the author, will be married today. In disclosing their wedding plans, Miss Pringle and Cain said they would have a civil ceremony at Santa Monica. The marriage will be the actress' second and Cain's third.

Four Power Parley May Drop to Two

China To Wait Outside And Russia May Sit In As Observer Only

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12—The unhappy prospect developed today that the four-power conference for setting up a peace organization would become merely a two-power conference between the United States and Great Britain—with China waiting outside the door and Russia sitting in as an observer.

This was the reaction in diplomatic circles to the news that Russia, after asking for a delay in the opening, was not sending a top-flight foreign office expert, but merely her ambassador to Washington, Andrei A. Gromyko.

Delegates are now assembling for the opening of the conference August 21. The Chinese vice minister of foreign affairs, Victor Hoo has already arrived. The British delegation, headed by Sir Alexander Cadogan, undersecretary of foreign affairs, is expected momentarily.

The U. S. delegation will be headed by Undersecretary of State Stettinius, with Cordell Hull giving advice from the sidelines.

China On Outside

But the Chinese will not participate in the conference until the sessions including Russia are terminated. Then a top-flight session will be held with the Chinese after the Russia delegation has stepped aside.

The appointment of Gromyko was generally disappointing, after Washington had expected no less a person than Maxim Litvinov, former foreign minister, and a strong figure in the League of Nations.

State department officials attempted to explain the situation in terms of Russia's shortage of foreign affairs experts. It was also pointed out that Russian support of the conference could not be doubted in view of the fact that it was first proposed by Foreign Minister Molotov at the Moscow conference attended by Secretary of State Hull last fall.

But diplomatic observers emphasized the point that Gromyko, by (Continued on Page Two)

MISSISSIPPI TO CAST ALL VOTES FOR ROOSEVELT

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 12—Mississippi's Democratic presidential electors were pledged today to cast their ballots in the electoral college for President Roosevelt and Senator Truman.

The electors, who had been told by the state party convention that they might vote for "any Democrat" for president of the national convention failed to adopt a suitable platform or name "acceptable" candidates, decided to support the nominees at a meeting yesterday.

Judge Herbert Holmes, chairman of the state committee, announced all electors except Judge R. C. Russell had pledged to support the Roosevelt-Truman ticket "unless something occurs between now and time for us to cast our votes which would make it contrary or inimicable to the best interests of Mississippi for us to do so."

Judge Russell said he would support the nominees "without reservation."

The action was taken at a meeting called after several delegates to the national convention in Chicago returned dissatisfied with the action of that body, and after pro-Roosevelt Democrats declared they might offer another set of electors if the ones regularly elected failed to make public their stand.

LLOYDS BETS AGAINST PEACE BY SEPTEMBER 15

LONDON, Aug. 12—Lloyds insurance brokers today are laying six to one against the war in Europe being over by September 15. The same brokers previously offered eight to five that the conflict will be over by October 31.

HUNS WITHDRAW TO CANAL NORTH OF OUTSKIRTS

Ancient Art Center Now In Allied Hands For All Practical Purposes

FRENCH TRAP CLOSING

Rumor Places American Forces Close To Paris—Enemy Fighting Hard

By International News Service
The whole Normandy battle-front flamed into furious action today as the Allied armies waged a campaign to annihilate the doggedly resisting German Seventh Army. The Allies threatened the Nazi army with possible entrapment.

Headquarters remained reticent concerning American progress east of Le Mans, including the rumor that the Yanks were near the outskirts of Paris, but admitted that U. S. armored and infantry units undoubtedly are continuing to advance from Le Mans.

There were indications that American forces, veering northward from Le Mans, were driving for a junction with the British below Caen to cut off the Nazis battling Allied armies to the west all along the front from Mortain through the area of Vire to Thury-Harcourt and Falaise.

The spokesman said: "The Germans are fighting like hell" to avoid an Allied breakthrough in the key areas of Mortain and Vire.

The Nazi Transoceanic Agency said that the Allied armies during the night had intensified their assaults to shatter the whole German front in Normandy.

Stubborn Resistance

Although the stubbornly resisting Nazi garrison at the large port of Brest was kept under assault, headquarters said it might be expected to be some time before it is overrun since a major Allied assault has not yet been launched.

Russia's Third Baltic army bit deeper into Estonia and Latvia today, crushing out the hordes of Nazis trapped there. Other Red Army forces pressed on relentlessly toward Warsaw.

Polish underground sources, meanwhile, reported that the Germans had ordered the evacuation of the Polish capital, warning the inhabitants to quit the city by midnight.

Soviets Move Ahead

In its drive through Estonia the Soviet army captured the road and rail junction of Psetsri, 16 miles inside Estonia from the Russian frontier.

In northern Poland, northwest and west of Bialystok, the Russians slashed toward the southern borders of East Prussia, scooping up more than 150 inhabited points on the way.

Polish and Italian troops on the Adriatic sector bore the brunt of the fighting in Italy today as the main forces of the British Eighth Army regrouped in the Florence area.

The Poles and Italians punched (Continued on Page Two)

ROMMEL HOPES TO PAY ALLIES FOR WOUNDING

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 12—The Berlin correspondent of the Swedish newspaper Dagens Nyheter reported today that Field Marshal Erwin Rommel told a journalist visiting him the circumstances of "his accident."

(Allied sources first reported that the field marshal had been injured and the Germans later confirmed the report.)

Rommel, according to the correspondent, said he was touring France when two Allied planes swooped down toward the car in which he was riding.

As the planes let go with their machine guns, the marshal and his men jumped out of the vehicle. Rommel was injured as a result of the leap.

KILGORE BILL SNOWED UNDER BY SENATORS

States' Systems Of Pay To Jobless Maintained By Heavy Vote

(Continued from Page One)

pay unemployment compensation to workers who may lose jobs when war is over.

2. Coverage of state systems by supplying federal funds to federal employees. This is designed to cover two million workers in shipyards and arsenals.

Salaries Set

3. Confirmation of the presidential set-up of office of mobilization, headed by former Supreme Court Justice James F. Byrnes, and gives the director broad authority to coordinate all government agencies in an orderly reconversion from war to peace. His salary is fixed at $15,000 a year.

4. A director of retraining at $12,000 a year to coordinate and recommend plans for retraining of war veterans and war workers.

5. Authorization for payments, up to $200, to move war workers and their families back to homes if war jobs fail.

The George plan of demobilization, based on the report of Bernard M. Baruch, was adopted over the Murray-Kilgore bill.

The Murray-Kilgore bill, which originally proposed a maximum unemployment compensation of $35 a week and later compromised on a $20-25 scale was assailed in the senate as proposing a spend-for-prosperity theory, of providing for regimentation of industry and labor and of being originated by the CIO. It was, supporters said, endorsed by the CIO, A. F. of L. and Railway Brotherhoods.

Defeat of the Murray-Kilgore bill was also a defeat for Sen. Harry S. Truman Missouri, Democratic candidate for vice-president. Without endorsing every feature of the bill, Truman supported it in the military affairs committee and by his vote on the floor. He voted against the George bill on final passage as a protest against the measure.

TWO MEN BOUND OVER IN BOAT CLUB THEFT

Two men had been bound over to the grand jury Saturday and a 16-year-old boy was sent to juvenile court as the result of police and sheriff's department investigation of the burglary of the Circleville Boat Club building on Route 22.

At a hearing before Mayor Ben Gordon Friday Henry Wallis and Earl Conrad were bound over to the grand jury under $500 bond each on charges of breaking and entering. Similar charges were filed against Roy Wallis, 16, and his case was referred to juvenile court.

Authorities recovered several articles of fishing tackle which were reported stolen from the boat house several weeks ago.

ASHVILLE

Cpl. Jack T. Clellen, who is being transferred to Tampa, Florida, is spending a two-weeks' furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orin J. Clellen.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mahaffey returned Wednesday from a visit with their son, Howard, at Madison, Wisconsin.

The Ashville fire department was called to the Dr. J. L. Spindler farm Friday night to help fight a grass fire which covered several acres.

Miss Maimie White, a graduate of Rio Grande College, was employed to fill the vacancy in the high school faculty caused by the resignation of Mrs. Jane Russell.

Mrs. Russell has accepted employment at the Ohio State university library.

Miss Dorothy Wellington left Friday for a week's visit with friends at Fair Haven, Massachusetts.

Mrs. Marie Shauk attended a dinner at the Neil House Friday, given for third floor employees of the F. and R. Lazarus store.

Several Ashville fans attended the soft ball game at Ted Lewis field Thursday evening. The Circleville Jaycees are doing a fine job in sponsoring this park. A similar organization for Ashville might be able to "get the ball rolling" for a lighted ball diamond here and a swimming pool after the war.

Mrs. Alta Bedell of Akron has returned home after an extended visit with her brother, George D. McDowell.

Cumberland waterfalls in Kentucky, 18 miles southwest of Corbin, is famous as the only waterfalls in the western hemisphere where a moonbow may be seen. The only other place in the world where a similar phenomenon may be observed is in South Africa.

Chinese Fighting Men March On Ledo Road

MARCHING along the Ledo road during maneuvers are soldiers of the crack 22nd Chinese division pictured above. The Ledo road is replacing the old Burma road as an Allied supply link between Burma and China.

WMC MOVES TO FILL VITAL JOBS

(Continued from Page One)

agencies applying pressure on employers unwilling to co-operate.

Among the "urgent" items cited by Goodwin for which production workers are needed were heavy duty tires, tanks, trucks, heavy guns and ammunition.

Goodwin declared that 50,000 additional workers are needed in the region, including 1,800 for the manufacture of heavy duty tires, 6,000 in foundry and forge shops and 1,800 in the lumber and logging industry of Michigan's upper peninsula.

"Expansions, too, have come," the WMC director said, "in tanks, heavy guns, cartridges, bombs, shells and ammunition. The major ordnance plants in this region must increase employment by 20 percent before the end of the year. These plants produce almost a quarter of the prime movers and ammunition components for heavy guns."

Special meetings of WMC area directors in Ohio and Michigan were scheduled for today to work out details of the plan.

NAZI ROBOTS STRIKING ENGLAND ON NEW ROUTE

LONDON, Aug. 12—The German robots roared in over Southern England today on what appeared to be a new route—from behind Bologne, France.

The Nazis sent the flying missiles over Britain in sporadic attacks which started shortly before midnight and lasted until after daybreak.

DERBY

Myrtle Jones is home on furlough as is also Melf Neff.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy McPherson had as Sunday dinner guests: Mrs. Earl Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Liston and little grandson of Columbus and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Graham. Afternoon guests were Mr. and Mrs. Vinnie Bauhan, Miss Pearl Dayo, Grace and Dorothy Minshall and Annette Dalley and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Southward and family, of Circleville.

Everette Kilpatrick, who is working on government work in Cleveland, spent Sunday with his wife, here. Harold Eddings and wife, of Findlay, were also guests of the Kilpatricks.

30,586 DEGREES SINCE 1855 STATE COLLEGE, Pa.—Pennsylvania State College has awarded 30,586 degrees since its founding in 1855, registrar William S. Hoffman reports. The bachelor degrees number 26,324.

If It's a Big Hit—

GRAND
CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

—The Grand Will Show It

5 DAYS STARTING SUNDAY

The White Cliffs of Dover

starring IRENE DUNNE with ALAN MARSHAL

M-G-M's

Hitler Plot Judge

PRESIDENT of Hitler's "People's Court," Judge Roland Freisler, who ordered eight Nazi officers hanged, reads the charges of plotting against Hitler. (International Radiophoto)

MILLIONS LOST IN HARBOR FIRE

(Continued from Page One)

damage was available, but Pier 4, which was destroyed, was piled high with war materials and valuable cranes and other equipment also was wrecked. The nature of the war material was not made public with the exception that nitro-cellulose was involved in the blasts. It was pointed out that nitro-cellulose itself is not an explosive but highly inflammable.

The fire was described as the "worst waterfront fire in New York in twenty years" and it called for a general alarm. Some twenty coast guard patrol boats and 500 coast guardsmen aided firemen in fighting the blaze.

Scores of streams of water are still being trained on the smoking, smoldering piers. It was said that the piers probably would burn for a week.

A thorough investigation by federal, state and city authorities was underway, but officials said the fire apparently started from natural causes and that there was no evidence of sabotage.

JAPANESE CAST ANXIOUS EYES TOWARD SKIES

PEARL HARBOR, Aug. 12—Japanese citizens cast anxious looks into Nippon's skies today following a blistering assault by land-based American bombers on Iwo Jima in the Volcano Islands, only 633 miles from the enemy's home shores.

The Iwo Jima raid came almost simultaneously with the B-29 attack on the huge shipbuilding and dock areas of Nagasaki on the southern tip of Kyushu Island.

(A radio Tokyo broadcast monitored in San Francisco said that school children were demolishing Tokyo's flimsy, wooden houses to prevent fire in case of an air raid on the empire's capital city.)

In the raid on the Volcano Island stronghold, several enemy planes made a futile attempt to intercept the planes of the Seventh Army Air force. Three of the Liberators suffered superficial damage from enemy ground fire.

It was the first attack by Seventh AAF Liberators on Iwo Jima, and they rained 47 tons of bombs among ground installations. The island target was hit July 19 by Navy planes and last week carrier based aircraft and warships blasted enemy bases in both the Volcanos and Bonin.

In a sudden flareup of aerial warfare against isolated Jap bases in the Marshalls, more than 100 American planes bombed and strafed Mille atoll, meeting only meager ground fire. Navy Ventura's also bombed Nauru Island.

DUCHESS TO UNDERGO OPERATION IN EAST

NEW YORK, Aug. 12—The British Information service disclosed today that the Duchess of Windsor will undergo a appendectomy operation at the New York hospital late this month or in early September.

Meanwhile the duke and duchess will be guests in Newport of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Young and later of Mrs. Duncan Douglas.

STOLEN BIKE RECOVERED

Chief McCrady announced Saturday the recovery of a bicycle belonging to Dale Delong, East Mound street, which was reported stolen from Circleville several days ago. Chief McCrady said the bicycle was recovered in Kingston by authorities there who obtained a confession from a boy who said he rode the bicycle from Circleville to Kingston, then reported finding it abandoned along a road near Kingston.

BUY WAR BONDS

CIRCLE

SUN.-MON.-TUES.
2 HITS!

JOHN WAYNE
SUSAN HAYWARD

THE FIGHTING SEABEES

PLUS HIT
NO. 2

TRC Pictures present
O'BRIEN-NEWELL
"The Great Escape"

SPOOK TOWN

GUY WILKINSON

HUNS WITHDRAW TO CANAL NORTH OF OUTSKIRTS

Ancient Art Center Now In Allied Hands For All Practical Purposes

(Continued from Page One)

ahead on a six-mile front in the Cesano river area, 20 miles above the port of Ancona.

Gen. Sir Maitland Wilson in the meantime disclosed that Allied command forces had demolished the bridge linking Cherso and Lussino islands, south of the Istrian peninsula in the Adriatic, in a daring night assault. The attack was carried out Wednesday night.

An estimated force of from 500 to 700 American heavy bombers thundered across Northern France in daylight today to pound the sprawling railroad yards at Metz near the German frontier. Escorted by a medium-sized force of Mustang fighters, the huge raiders also struck several enemy airdromes in the northern reaches of German-held France.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters announced other air activity. Mitchell and Liberator bombers under MacArthur's command blasting relentlessly to reduce the last Jap bastion between American held positions on Dutch New Guinea and the Philippines, scored heavy damage on Jap shipping and military installations on Halmahera Island in a series of new air assaults.

NAZI MADMAN FORCES DEATH PLEDGE ON ARMY

NEW YORK, Aug. 12—The "madman colonel" of St. Malo, Col. Paul Von Aulock who refuses to surrender to the Americans, was reported today to have forced his subordinate officers to sign a pledge to defend their most hopeless positions to the last.

Each officer was threatened with court martial and punishment after the war in the event of breaking his pledge, a BBC broadcast heard by CBS reported.

The British announcer said that American troops have captured a copy of the document which reads as follows:

"I am commanding a battle position. It is my duty to hold this position to the last, even if we are encircled and lack food and ammunition. Should I not fulfill my duty, and surrender to the enemy, I shall be court martialled upon my return to Germany and punished."

BBC quoted a frontline correspondent as adding:

"The number of German soldiers and French civilians condemned to die by Col. Von Aulock's senseless order to defend the citadel cannot yet be estimated."

Von Aulock, embittered by the death of his wife and children during a Berlin bombing raid and suffering from illusions as the result of a head wound suffered at Stalingrad, was pictured yesterday as convinced he can turn his last citadel at St. Malo into another Stalingrad. Despite all pleas of his own men, he has steadfastly refused to surrender, frontline reports said.

WINDSOR THINKS WAR NOW IN FINAL STAGES

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 12—The Duke of Windsor today said that he thinks the war is in its final stages but would not say when the end would come.

Beginning a ten-day visit at Newport the duke and duchess for whom no large formal parties have been arranged, will be the house guests of Robert H. Young and later of Mrs. Duncan Douglas.

It is expected that the duke will visit army and navy installations in the Newport vicinity.

LATEST PHOTOS OF MARSHAL TITO

MARSHAL TITO, leader of the Yugoslav Army of Liberation, who has rarely been photographed informally, is shown here in two unusual poses. Above, the famed head of the Yugoslav guerilla army, is shown in the cave where he makes his quarters dictating to his secretary. Below the camera catches him well pleased with a move in chess. Note the tiny pipe in which he holds his cigaret. (International)

U. S. LOSES 24 BATTLE CHIEFS

(Continued from Page One)

generals killed in action, one of whom was Lt. Gen. Lesley J. McNair, killed in France by bombs from American planes falling short of their target. The other two—Maj. Gen. Clarence L. Tinker and Brig. Gen. Asa M. Duncan were killed in air action.

Listed on the navy's rolls are the following high-ranking naval and Marine officers lost in the war zones during World War II since Pearl Harbor, Dec. 7, 1941.

Rear Adm. Isaac C. Kidd, 57, killed in action aboard the U.S.S. Arizona at Pearl Harbor; Rear Adm. John W. Wilcox, 60, lost overboard in heavy weather; Vice Admiral Arthur Leroy Bristow, Jr., 55, died "after a brief illness" in the North Atlantic; Rear Adm. Norman Scott, 53, killed aboard flagship U.S.S. Atlanta at the battle of Guadalcanal; Rear Adm. Daniel Judson Callaghan, 52, killed aboard the U.S.S. San Francisco, Guadalcanal.

Rear Adm. Robert H. English, 54, killed in plane crash near San Francisco; Maj. Gen. William P. Uphur, 61, Marine commanding general of department of the Pacific, killed near Sitka, Alaska, in plane crash; Commodore James A. Logan, 54, killed in plane crash, Northern Ireland; Maj. Gen. Charles D. Barrett, 58, killed "accidentally" in South Pacific; Rear Adm. Henry M. Mullinix, 51, missing in action following loss of U.S.S. Liscomb Bay in the Gilbert Islands.

Rear Adm. Charles T. Cecil, 50, killed in airplane crash at undisclosed Pacific base; and Rear Adm. Don Pardee Modn, 50, multiple, Northern France.

Following are Army generals who were killed in action or died in World War II:

McNair, killed in France; Tinker, listed as missing in action following air battle off Midway Island; Duncan, missing off the European coast; Lt. Gen. Frank M. Andrews, plane crash, Iceland; Maj. Gen. Herbert A. Dargue, plane crash, enroute to the Pacific; Maj. Gen. Stonewall Jackson, died Camp Polk in airplane accident; Maj. Gen. Frank C. Mahin, air crash, Waynesboro, Tenn.; Brig. Gen. Charles H. Barth, Jr., air crash, Iceland; Brig. Gen. Harold H. George, plane crash, Australia; Brig. Gen. Carlyle Wash, plane crash, near Mobile, Ala.; Brig. Gen. Alfred H. Lyon, pneumonia, after exposure over German-occupied Europe; and Brig. Gen. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., heart attack, France.

(Continued from Page One)

being less expert and of lesser rank than other delegates, would serve as little more than an observer, to report progress to Moscow.

The heads of the other three delegations—British, Chinese and American—all have the rank of undersecretary of state.

Gromyko was an agronomical engineer in Russia before being sent to Washington as counselor of embassy under Ambassador Maxim Litvinov. When Litvinov was recalled Gromyko remained as chargé de affairs, and was later elevated to ambassador.

Officials also commented on the fact that the British and American foreign offices have made elaborate preparations for the conference, and have worked out in great detail their plans for the new League of Nations which is to be established.

The Russians, on the other hand, are far behind in postwar planning.

It was feared that this situation will make the Washington conference top-heavy on the side of the United States and Great Britain, and will retard a full four-power agreement.

Both opposing presidents of the American Civil War period, Abraham Lincoln and Jefferson Davis, were born in the same state, Kentucky.

Tenn.; Brig. Gen. Charles H. Barth, Jr., air crash, Iceland; Brig. Gen. Harold H. George, plane crash, Australia; Brig. Gen. Carlyle Wash, plane crash, near Mobile, Ala.; Brig. Gen. Alfred H. Lyon, pneumonia, after exposure over German-occupied Europe; and Brig. Gen. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., heart attack, France.

ADULTS ALWAYS 30¢

CHAKERS

CLIFTONA

CIRCLEVILLE, O.

CHILDREN UNDER 12—10¢

Sun.-Mon.
2 SWELL FEATURES

Last of the Gangsters!

ROGER TOUNY
Gangster!

with PRESTON FOSTER
VICTOR MCGLAGLEN
LOIS ANDREWS

—FEATURE NO. 2—

PAULETTE GODDARD
FRED MACMURRAY

"STANDING ROOM ONLY"

A Paramount Picture

FDR PREPARES DIRECT REPORT ON PACIFIC TRIP

Chief Executive Scheduled For Saturday Evening Radio Appearance

(Continued from Page One)

victorious progress of American troops against the Japanese in the Pacific areas, results of his war strategy conference with generals and admirals of the Pacific high command, and reiteration of the declaration made at Pearl Harbor that the war in the Pacific will be fought until Japan's war machine is completely and finally crushed.

Mr. Roosevelt, accompanied by members of his personal military and naval staff, left Pearl Harbor Saturday evening, July 29, after his first visit to the Pacific war theatre in wartime.

It was his first personal meeting of the war with General MacArthur.

From Pearl Harbor, the President's cruiser took him to the Aleutians, where he inspected bases there, and lunched with soldiers, marines and sailors. Then, through stormy seas, he returned to Seattle.

HUN CIVILIANS POURING OUT OF FRENCH CAPITAL

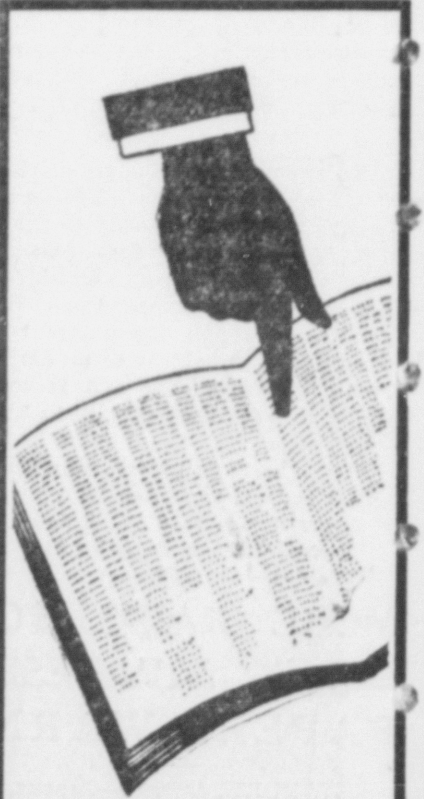

LONDON, Aug. 12—Hundreds of German civilians are pouring out of Paris after receiving a grim warning to "get out while the going is good—the Allies will be here within 10 days," a Stockholm dispatch to the London Daily Mail said today.

The dispatch said it was not known what started the warning, although it may have been given by the French underground or arisen from German fears.

MOTORIST ACCUSED

Walter P. Congrove of near Lakerville was to appear in Mayor Ben H. Gordon's court Saturday night as the result of an auto accident on Court street near the post office Friday at 6:20 p. m. Minor property damage resulted to the crash between Congrove's car and one driven by Rex L. Wadlington. Baer Field, Ind. Patrolman George Green said Congrove was driving with a temporary permit and no licensed driver was with him.

BUY WAR BONDS

PLEASE LOOK
in your telephone book before you call
Information

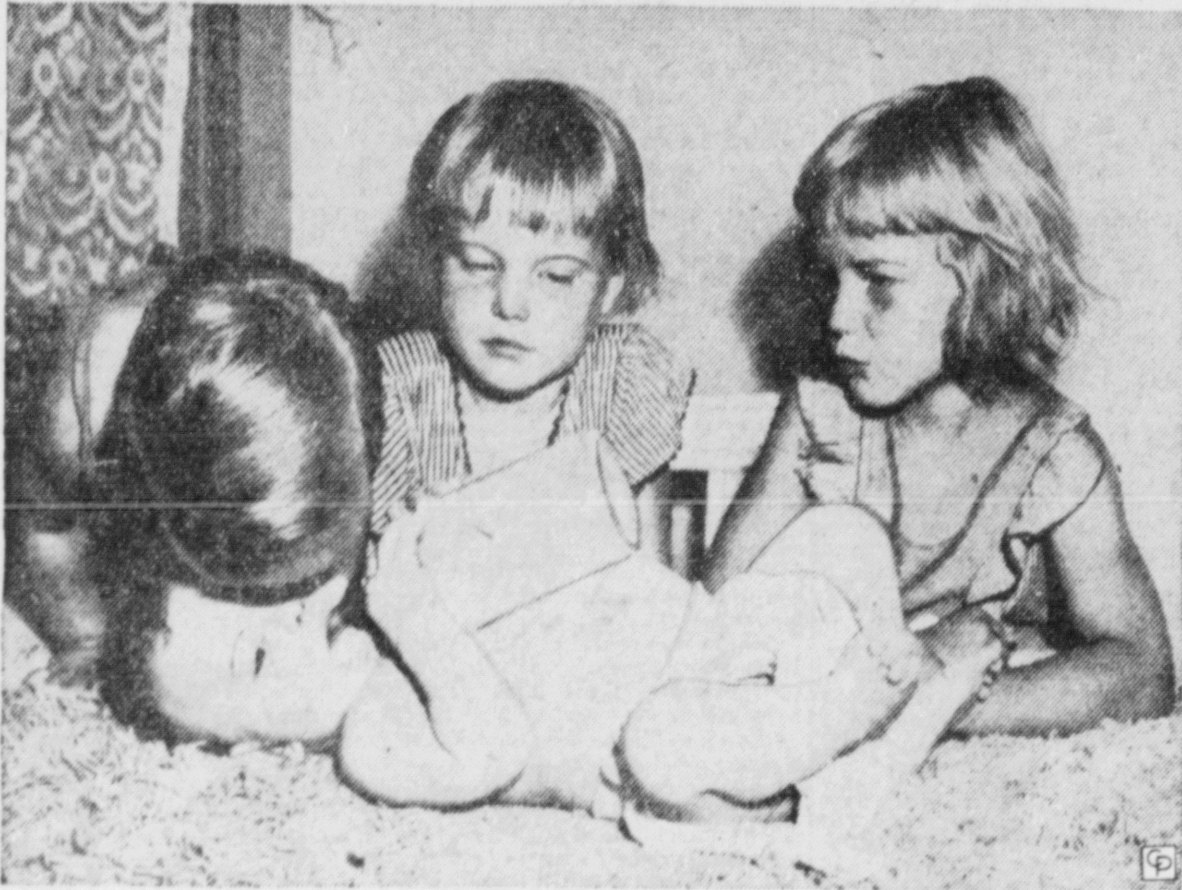

Needless calls to Information tie up vital telephone equipment. This wastes time... in wartime.

The Citizens Telephone Co.

HERALD PHOTO-FLASHES

MOTHER DISAPPEARS--FOUR TOTS AWAIT RETURN

STILL WAITING for their "Mom" to return are these four children of Mrs. Alva Saltzman, who has been missing from her Chicago home since July 14. Three of the children are seen mothering a fourth, Baby Randall, whom Gerald, 2, is kissing. Looking on are Linda, 5, at left, and Joan, 6. (International)

FLORENTINES HAIL TOMMIES

HAPPY, LAUGHING ITALIANS surround a battle-worn tank and local boys and girls roost all over it in this picture made when the British 8th Army entered the southern portion of Florence and began organizing to cross the Arno. Signal Corps Radioteletypephoto. (International)

FRENCH VILLAGERS HAPPY TO SEE DOUGHBOYS

A GROUP OF VILLAGERS of Notre Dame De Cenilly, an area destroyed by the rapid advance of American forces, turns out to greet the Yanks as they pass by on their rapid-fire drive toward the French capital, just 87 miles to the east of our lines. (International)

Opposes Mrs. Luce

OPPOSING the colorful Rep. Clare Boothe Luce in Connecticut's race for nomination to Congress is the Democratic candidate, Margaret E. Connors, 29-year-old CIO-supported Bridgeport attorney, pictured above. (International)

FRENCH BELLES SWING YANK PARTNERS IN GAY WELCOME

ALL IT NEEDED WAS AN ARKANSAS FIDDLER to "call the figures" to turn the streets of Brittany into an old-fashioned Yankee hoe-down. For the Breton belles staged such spontaneous hoop-la that, according to wire reports, lads from the States were reminded of New Year's eve celebrations in Times Square, New York. One officer was quoted as saying that French celebrations, often held up the great victory sweep. In the above picture, men, women and children of all ages and types have turned out while the girls dance in the streets. (International)

One Man Army Isn't Broke Now

WINNING fame for wiping out 60 Germans on the Italian front, Pvt. Alton W. Knappenberger, 20, of Springmount, Pa., is back home on furlough. Pictured above with his girl friend, Miss Ruth Flickhoff, the Yank, who was dubbed the one man army and presented the Congressional Medal after his military feat, arrived home on his furlough, a surprise to his family, without any extra cash due to a pickpocket that caught up with him in Naples before he left Italy. But his bankroll is doing OK now, for hearing of his bad luck in Naples, the hometown folk are donating to a fund for their hero.

SO NOW SHE OUTRANKS HIM

THOUGH SHE'S A WAC PRIVATE and he's an Army non-com, Marjorie English of Oneida, N. Y., ranks as senior—around the house, anyway—of T/Sgt. John T. Potter of Austin, Tex. She married the flying gunner, veteran of Africa and Italy, at the AAF Redistribution Station in Atlantic City, where both are on duty. (International)

SWEARS IN NEW PHILIPPINE CABINET

PRESIDENT SERGIO OSMENA, who succeeded the late Manuel Quezon as President of the Philippines, is shown swearing in members of the reorganized Philippine Commonwealth war cabinet. They are (l. to r.): Hon. Ismael Mathay, Budget Commissioner; Col. Manuel Nieto, Secretary of Agriculture; Col. Carlos Romulo, Secretary of Information; Hon. Jaime Hernandez, Secretary of Finance; Pres. Osmena. (International)

Ghost Of Guam

THE only American to have spent virtually the entire Pacific war to date on Guam is George Ray Tweed, 42, above, who five years ago August 10, landed on that island assigned to duty at the naval radio station there. He has remained on the island in hiding since the first Japanese attack on December 8, 1941, eluding his captors until one month ago when he escaped to an American naval vessel following the invasion of Saipan island. He is now in this country where his wife and their two sons, Ronald Eugene, 9, and Robert Edward, 3, who was born on Guam, are residing with Mrs. Tweed's mother, Mrs. W. H. Sudduth of Santa Paula, Cal.

Oldest Prisoner

TIRED OF WAR—and seemingly of everything else—is this 76-year-old Nazi in Army uniform, subtly flattered at being captured by our Yanks in France and pictured boarding a transport for U. S. internment as a prisoner-of-war, Coast Guard photo. (International)

SIGN CLAIMS ALL ILLS CURED

GOOD FOR ANYTHING that ails you is this establishment in Burma, which is fronted by the "Hairy Ears" hospital sign. From the looks of the sprouting stuff on T/S Ferdinand A. Robichaux's chin, he needs the hospital's services. From Jeanerette, La., Robichaux is a member of the Engineer Corps which is helping to build and maintain the Ledo road which has replaced the Burma road as a supply link between Burma and China. (International)

OIL COUP STARTS NEW RED DRIVES

WITH THE LAST of the 2,000 Galician oil wells wrenched from the Nazi war machine's clutches by Red forces hammering into the Carpathian mountains (1) the Germans are now left with Ploesti alone (2) and the Red armies may soon move against the rich Romanian fields. Also, following up the capture of Boryslaw and Sambor—both rich oil centers—other Red divisions were preparing to smash on into Czechoslovakia. (International)

MacARTHUR AND NIMITZ CHAT WITH ROOSEVELT

IN PEARL HARBOR, HAWAII, where President Franklin D. Roosevelt spent three days in conference with members of the Pacific high command, he posed for the above U. S. Navy photo with Gen. Douglas MacArthur, left, supreme Allied commander of the Southwest Pacific, and Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander-in-chief of the U. S. Pacific fleet and the Pacific ocean areas. MacArthur, who returned immediately to the Southwest Pacific after the three-day conference not waiting for the news conference, is shown wearing his battered old field marshal's cap with faded gold braid which he wore out of the Philippines. (International Soundphoto)

The Circleville Herald

Consolidation of The Circleville Herald, Established 1883, and the Daily Union Herald, established 1894.

Published Evenings Except Sunday By
THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY
210 North Court Street, Circleville

T. E. WILSON ..... Publisher
Member Ohio Newspaper Association, International News Service, Central Press Association, and the Ohio Select List.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES
JOHN W. CULLEN COMPANY
230 N. Michigan Avenue, Chicago; 630 Fifth Avenue, New York; 3044 N. Grand Blvd., Detroit.

SUBSCRIPTION
Pickaway County and Circleville trading territory.
By carrier in Circleville, 20c per week. By mail per year, $4 in advance; Zones one and two, $5 per year in advance; beyond first and second postal zones, per year, $6.00 in advance.

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, Ohio, as Second Class Matter.

JOB OR SCHOOL?

THOUSANDS of young people face an important decision this September. Shall they keep on with a war job paying a lot of money, or shall they quit and go back to school?

It is hard to answer the question in general terms. If the youngster is already part way through high school, is saving his money for college, if he knows the job will end soon and is prepared in mind to go straight back to complete his education when it does, it may be all right to keep on for a few months more.

But if the boy or girl thinks there's no use in school when compared with the fat pay envelope, does not realize what will happen to him a few years from now—he'd better stop that job quick and go back to school to learn some things he ought to know.

For war jobs are fleeting. After them, for the extra workers, such as these young people and many women, idleness looms. No job, no pay, no training for the future. It's a sad outlook. When there's great manpower shortage, as in war, extras are needed. When the men come home, these untrained young people, now grown older, must compete in a market of skilled workmen. What chance have they? But if they get more education, more training, more power in their heads and hands both, then they can always make a living. Education has values on many sides of life.

NO THROAT SURGERY NOW

IN August parents are urged to take their children to have a thorough check-up by the family doctor. It's good advice. They ought to have eyes, ears, teeth, throat looked at and a general going over before school begins. Then if treatments, adjustments, dentistry, glasses, are indicated, they can have the work taken care of before school begins and bien the best of order for their new year.

One exception is now noted. It is better not to have any throat or nose surgery done until after the first frost in the North, November, perhaps, in the South. Germs of infantile paralysis seem to be around in greater numbers at this time of year, or in a more virulent stage. So it is not well to have any raw surfaces in nose or throat which might offer an opening door to these germs. It is better, therefore, to wait till later in the Fall, when the weather is cooler and the disease is less prevalent, to have tonsils and adenoids out. For other improvements, the sooner the better. Especially glasses. Getting used to them before school begins is fine.

The Argentine bishop Andrea told his country's totalitarian ruler, "To dominate slaves is doubly ignoble; to reign over the free is doubly glorious." In this one sentence he sums up the difference between the Axis overlords and the freely elected heads of the United Nations.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

By DREW PEARSON

RESIGNATION OF TWO WPB AIDES

WASHINGTON—Inside story of the resignation of two War Production Board statisticians, Irving Kaplan and V. Lewis Bassie, is one of the most important affecting future U. S. economy. Certain Army brass hats are seething over the situation. The War Production Board is split into two separate camps.

Here is the backstage story of what all the argument is about.

The WPB statistical division, under Charles E. Wilson, last week circulated a monthly progress report. Then, no sooner was it in the hands of top WPB executives, than the report was mysteriously called back. Urgent demands were made by Wilson's office that it be returned immediately. All but perhaps two copies were destroyed.

That report, while pointing to deficiencies in certain key war materials, otherwise painted a very rosy picture of war production. It showed that there was nine months supply of ordnance on hand, plus one month supply being assembled, plus five months supply in scheduled production. The report stated that the war could run for one year and three months on the ordnance now stored up or coming off the assembly lines, without ordering anything else.

The report also showed that the total supply of small arms would last for five whole years of war.

The supply of tractors, trucks and trailers, plus those being assembled and in actual production, was enough to last one year, according to the WPB report.

Guns and fire control weapons were listed as sufficient in storage to last eight full months without turning another wheel, plus four months supply being assembled and repaired, plus two months supply in scheduled production.

Ammunition for big guns (excluding small arms) was listed as enough stored to last one whole year. Including amounts in scheduled production, big gun ammunition was listed as sufficient to last twenty-three months.

"This analysis," WPB reported, "does not take into account supplies already issued and in the hands of troops in the United States."

RELEASE OF LABOR

Summarizing the whole picture, the WPB statistical division concluded:

"Available supplies insure the War Production Board's ability to flow adequate equipment and ammunition in adequate volume to our troops overseas and to sustain the large scale operations planned. Increased production of certain types of ammunition is nevertheless essential in order to insure adequate supplies of specific items."

The report went on to cite the increasing production of steel and copper and to point to surpluses on hand. It also contained this significant statement:

"The decisive factor in the decline in labor requirements in the munitions industries has been the continued rapid increase in output per worker. This trend will continue accelerating the release of labor as munitions production declines."

This statement was made just at a time when War Mobilizer Byrnes was bowing to the Army and taking the unusual step of superseding Donald Nelson by announcing that, because of manpower shortages, no civilian conversion could be started

(Continued on Page Eight)

LAFF-A-DAY

"And since we've been closing on Wednesdays, so our help can get needed rest and relaxation, it's like this all day every Thursday!"

DIET AND HEALTH

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

THE HAZARD of injury or disease of the hands, as we pointed out in a recent article, is that the hand gets thrust into dangerous places—whirling machinery, against splinters and sharp surfaces. The hazard of the feet is simply weight bearing. The foot, of course, is subject to all the diseases any part of similar structure has—tumors of the skin, tendons and bones.

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

The blood vessels of the feet are especially likely to go bad. Infections are rare because of the usual protection of the foot. But to have to bear up the weight of a hundred to two hundred pounds mass of flesh on a delicate arch spanned by thin bones, tendons and muscles—that is what causes its most frequent trouble.

The number of people who have painful feet is unknown to statisticians, but it must go into astronomical figures. We get some hints from military medical reports—in one group 30,000 out of 220,000 draftees were disqualified for general military service because of feet; 21,000 were qualified for limited military service and 9,000 were absolutely rejected.

Strain on Feet

Of course as soon as anyone not used to it goes up against the marching and standing of military service, the strain on the foot arch is bound to cause grief. Thus at Camp Van Dorn there were 332 out of a group of 10,000 selectees who had to consult the orthopedic surgeon on account of painful feet. Most of these were flat feet, but about 10% were due to Morton's metatarsalgia, caused by an anatomical variation of shortening of the big toe bone in the foot. It is easily relieved by a compensating insole. Flat foot is also usually readily improved by foot exercises and other orthopedic measures.

Corns and calluses are also simply expressions of poor weight bearing or poor foot gear—quite as often due to too big as too tight shoes. Corns are due to pressure or rubbing and too big a shoe will rub a corn into existence as readily as too tight a shoe will press one. Socks and stockings are also a cause of corns. A thin cotton or silk sock gives the skin of the foot no protection against the pressure of the shoes, as does a heavy or woolen stocking, which latter also keeps the temperature of the foot even.

In ice cave, Kentucky, ice remains during the entire year.

A corn is somewhat different from a callus, which latter is a flaky, horny thickening of the skin. A corn has a central conical mass with the sharp end pointing inward and will not be entirely cured until that center is removed. For permanent relief of a corn, especially recurrent corns, proper muscle balance of the foot must be restored and this is done largely by exercises, plus properly designed shoes.

Removing Pressure

For most cases of corns, conservative measures, such as padding, protecting by shields and corn plasters containing salicylic acid, which soften the horny tissue end, and, of course, relief of pressure, are preferred. I am in receipt of Goldie Dolfuss' corn remedy which is to put a well-chewed wad of chewing gum over the corn. That and Aunt Delma's method of putting a plain pearl button in lemon juice until it becomes soft and pasty and strapping it over the corn are, as far as I can see, just methods of protection against rubbing.

Regular exercises are almost a necessity for those with weak feet who have to stand or walk a good part of the 24 hours. They should be done morning and evening. Mme. Helena Rubinstein writes that the way to get the most out of reading is while you are sitting with a good book to turn and twist the ankles around as on a pivot. I don't know that I agree that this is the way to get the most out of all reading. I prefer to devote my attention exclusively either to Plato or foot exercises.

The best foot exercises can be done with the help of a bathroom towel. Lying on the back, holding one end of the towel in each hand, pull the foot in the center of the towel and push hard against it, pulling the towel to right and left alternately.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

M. J.—Is it dangerous to keep a medicine over a length of time and then use it?
Answer: Most medicines lose their effectiveness with time. Using such a medicine you may lose enough time to make the difference between successful treatment and failure or between quick recovery and prolonged illness. A few medicines may in the course of time become dangerous. An example is tincture of iodine, which loses its alcohol by evaporation and becomes dangerously irritating if kept too long.

Looking Back in Pickaway County

FIVE YEARS AGO

Pickaway county Red Cross officials were invited to attend a district meeting to be held Thursday, September 21, at the Washington C. H. Country Club.

Terry Hitchcock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hitchcock, 349 East Union street, was stationed in San Francisco, awaiting the end of his four-year enlistment period in the U. S. Navy. He had seen service in the Orient.

Mrs. W. Emerson Downing returned to her home on East Main street after six weeks spent in Gloucester, Mass., studying under Clayton H. Staples, noted watercolorist.

10 YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dunkel and son, Ralph, of Walnut Creek pike, and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Reber and daughters, Ann and Elizabeth, of Walnut township, returned home after a week's stay at Wolf Lake Park, Michigan.

Crashing values for grains, with losses running to five cents a bushel, overshadowed the treat-

THE REST OF MY LIFE WITH YOU

by Faith Baldwin

CHAPTER THIRTY-TWO

Matthew was standing by the fireplace, his pipe in his mouth. He commented, "You look very pretty this evening, Mrs. Norman."

"Thank you," she said.

"I like you in green," she said, laughing.

"In whatever it is. In anything at all."

She said, "You look terribly wide awake."

"I am. Let's go out and dance."

"At this hour?"

"Midnight? It's only the shank of the evening, my good girl."

She said, smiling, "You have to be at the hospital in the morning, early. Wait till I straighten things up and we'll go to bed."

"Why can't Nils?" he asked.

"I let him off early. He's been up quite a lot lately and I think he's coming down with a cold."

"You spoil your servants."

"I don't think so," demurred Judith; "after all, it's give-and-take in that relationship too."

"Why? You pay them plenty. And it's all take on their side."

She said, "Well, let's not fight about it. It's very hard to get a good couple nowadays, Matthew; I'd like to hang on to this one."

"It's your affair," he commented carelessly.

Their finances were not at all involved. Matthew paid the rent, and his office expenses and Judith ran the house. She had said, when the extent of Ella's legacy was revealed to her, "Well, it's a partnership, isn't it? What does it matter how much each of us contributes?"

She was emptying ash trays when Matthew spoke again. He said, "See here, Judy, I wonder if it's very wise to see quite so much of Elizabeth and Peter?"

"What do you mean, 'quite so much'?" she demanded. "This is only the second time they've been here since we were married."

He declared slowly, "I know. But after all—do you see her occasionally outside?"

"I like her," said his wife, "and now and then when you let the poor girl off for a decent lunch hour, I take her out. And that Sunday when you were busy all day I drove her and Peter up into the country. Just what don't you like about it?"

"Don't get worked up, darling. Only it's a little unwise to mix office and home, isn't it?"

Judith remarked, "We see enough of Sam and Bill and their wives."

"That's entirely different," he retorted. "This setup makes things awkward. I mean, here we had dinner tonight and played cards, all very friendly. Suppose something goes wrong tomorrow, an appointment or whatever. It won't be easy to bawl her out."

She asked curiously, "And do you ever?"

"Sure. Why not? I bawl 'em out. I can't stand it when things go wrong through sheer stupidity or inattention. They don't mind."

"That's what you think."

"It's her job," Matthew said definitely, "and if she's going to keep it she's got to be good at it. It took her weeks to steady down after she and Peter were married. And I was very patient about it," he added.

"You needn't be so smug," began Judith. Then she laughed and went over to him and leaned her head against his shoulder. "You can always get another office nurse, darling, but it isn't so easy to find friends. Elizabeth's a friend and a good one. You could depend on her and on Peter too, through anything. That's what counts."

Her husband said, "My logic's sounder. You'll see."

"I don't think so," objected Judith calmly. "Just because you're a martinet, I don't intend to lose a friend. And by golly," she went on, warming to the subject, "if necessary I'll get her another job and a better one!"

"Where, for instance?" he inquired.

"Well, there's Dr. Ellison. I happen to know that he's been looking for a nurse."

Ellison was one of the late Aunt Ella's many former physicians.

"Where'd you see him?" Matthew asked.

"Ran into him on the street. He's a dear old man and bears Aunt Ella no grudge."

"Well, you needn't suggest Elizabeth to him," he said, and to her amazement, he said, "I'm genuinely angry. 'She's trained just as I want her to be; Irene trained her.'"

Judith was silent, and after a moment she said casually, "I'm going to bed now."

When his wife had gone, Matthew stood chewing on the cold pipe, letting his anger cool as well. Now and then she infuriated him. She—interfered. He thought: She's my wife, this is my house. In other words, his word was law. But it wasn't, apparently.

Judith was in bed when her husband came upstairs and turned to smile at him as he prowled around the room, flinging his clothes this way and that. She said, "And I'm not going to pick them up. They can stay there, just that way. Nils will gather them together and send them to the tailor in the morning."

"I don't expect you to pick them up," he remarked, yet it flashed across his mind that, subconsciously, he did. Mary had always picked up after him; and Irene.

She asked, "You're still angry with me?"

"No, of course I'm not."

"Prove it."

He came over, stooped down, took her into his arms and kissed her with satisfactory violence. Releasing her, he said, "You're a maddening woman. I could spank you."

"Try it," challenged Judith, with considerable spirit.

Matthew yawned. He was sleepy, after all. The hospital, early. He said, "Not tonight," and went off to his bathroom laughing a little.

Judith, lying back against the pillows, thought: He really meant that about Elizabeth. I won't do it. I won't hurt her, I like her too much. . . .

One day in the spring Matthew telephoned that he would be very late. Judith had her dinner on tray and, when he came in about half past eight, his was waiting for him. She went to sit with him while he ate it.

He said accusingly, "You didn't wait for me."

"Angel, I was starved. I walked miles today. . . I wouldn't take the car. Jack had been out with you last night. So I let him go for the day. He'll call soon to see if you want him to drive you tonight."

"I won't. As far as I know, I'm free. Let's go to a movie."

"All right. I'll have to dress."

"What's the matter with what you have on? It looks all right to me."

"It's called a hostess gown," she informed him, "and it's floor length. I'd look pretty funny in a neighborhood movie house, wouldn't I?"

When Matthew was drinking his coffee she said, "Look, come along while I change, will you? I want to tell you something."

Judith was brushing her shining hair and reddening her mouth when he came into their bedroom. She said, putting on the jacket of her tweed suit and picking up her sables from a chair, "I went to see Dr. Leming today."

"What for?" asked Matthew, startled.

"Well," replied Judith, "I wanted to be sure that there was no reason why I couldn't have a baby."

"Who told you about him?"

"Mary. I asked her."

Matthew shook his head. He said, after a moment, "But I don't want you to have a baby yet, Judy."

She nodded, "I know. So I saw Dr. Leming."

"I'll wring his neck," cut in Matthew. He took her by the shoulders. "I thought we talked about this before we were married."

"I know we did. But I feel differently," said Judith simply, "now that we are married. I'd like a baby as soon as possible. And then some more."

Her husband demurred, "But you know how I feel."

She came close to him, looked up at his dark and frowning face.

"Matthew, I love you so much. Can't you see why, when we are young, I want your children. I don't want to wait?"

"I told you, five years. That's plenty of time."

"There's never enough time," she said slowly with a wisdom far beyond her years. "I can't understand you, darling. A child, children, ours."

Matthew replied, "Judy, I like our life as it is. I don't want it interrupted. When I am home I want you there. I want you ready to go out with me, or—He stopped and shook his head. "I'm not so articulate as you. I don't want to share you, not yet—can't you understand?"

"Yes, darling. I understand that much. But you wouldn't share me. We'd be sharing, together. Can't you see that too?"

(To be continued)

Copyright, 1943, by Faith Baldwin. Copyright Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

GRAB BAG

One-Minute Test
1. Which would take less time to run—100 yards or 100 meters?
2. What two presidents who signed the Declaration of Independence died on July 4th?
3. Who is considered the first great Italian painter?

Words of Wisdom
Who overcomes by force hath overcome but half his foe.—Milton.

Today's Horoscope
With more than ordinary ability, you have self-confidence and ambition, and work and plan in a methodical manner. You sometimes speak quickly, but you do not intentionally hurt others. You love travel and good times and want your family and loved ones to share all your pleasures. You are affectionate and loving. In the next year you should guard against misrepresentation, double-dealing, theft and misplacement of important documents; also accidents and nervous overstrain. Employers will be helpful; travel will not. Born today a child will evince luxurious tastes, spending money quickly and often foolishly. Much artistic and musical talent will be forthcoming.

Hints on Etiquette
Chaplains in the armed forces are addressed as "chaplain" no matter what their rank.

Sunday Horoscope
You are ambitious, have high ideals, determination, energy, and are trustworthy if today is your natal day. You strive to excel in whatever you undertake. You are sentimental, loyal and love your family above everything else. You are loved by all because of your sympathetic and generous nature. In spite of annoyance through one elder, others contribute to increased finances and happiness in the domestic and social circles in the next year. This period favors the nursing profession. While being intellectual and fond of learning, the child who is born today will be threatened with nervous exhaustion through over-study. Care when near fire and explosives is recommended.

One-Minute Test Answers
1. One hundred yards. One hundred yards equals 91.44 meters.
2. Thomas Jefferson and John Adams.
3. Giotto.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By Shepard Barclay

"The Authority on Authorities"

COMBINING PLAYS

Among the most beautiful plays in the game are those which are really combinations of two or more different plays. Sometimes they give the defenders an option between two courses of action, either of which will beat them. In other words, the declarer lets them choose between different ways of committing suicide.

♠ 8 6 3
♥ K Q J 2
♦ J 6 5 3
♣ Q 5

♠ K 10 7
♥ 10 9 8 4
♦ 3
♣ A K 10 7

♠ J 5
♥ 7 6 5
♦ Q 8 4
♣ J 9 8 4 3

Dealer: North. Neither side vulnerable.

North East South West
Pass Pass 1 ♠ Pass
2 ♥ Pass 3 ♦ Pass
4 ♠ Pass 5 ♣

West's lead was his club K, and for some reason he decided that the diamond 10 was a good shift. This brought the J, Q and A. The diamond K and 9 closed out the hostile trumps, the heart A was scored and the diamond 2 was led to the 6, West discarding hearts on the trumps. Followed then the heart K, Q and J for discards of a club and two spades.

If West had put two clubs on these, the dummy would have fed him the club Q to his A, South shedding a spade, which would have compelled West to lead up to his spade A-Q. If West discarded two spades, his K then could have been dropped. So he tossed one club and one spade, whereupon North led a spade and played his Q. The K was all West could take, as South's cards were now all good. He had used a combination of a squeeze and lead-throwing end play.

West could have taken two clubs at the start, and then waited for South to lose to the spade K, but he didn't do this.

Your Week-End Lesson
What is the thing to do if your partner gets you into a badly over-bid contract in the wrong declaration?

GI JOE'S PARTY

LAKE RONKONKOMA, L. I.—Somebody has stolen a quart of money from Storekeeper John Gerkens and made an awful dent in a future party for returning soldiers. The confectionery merchant kept the bottle on a counter and custo-meters dropped coins as contributions to the big party that youths from the local community were to get when the war is over. It contained over $40. The storekeeper was distraught and closed shop to help police hunt for the thief. But the culprit who stole the party could not be found.

Inside WASHINGTON

Reconversion Program Competes With Election Congress to Launch It, Then Pause to Campaign

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON—Faced with the realistic possibility of a German collapse, Congress is now racing against time for the enactment of reconversion legislation. While speed is the keynote on Capitol Hill to conform with the swiftly moving military situation, congressmen are also intent on getting some legislation on the books so they can get back home to continue their re-election campaigns.

So look for Congress to get a reconversion program started and then fill in the gaps later. This preliminary program will probably include three pending bills calling for unemployment compensation, a post-war demobilization office—perhaps within the Office of War Mobilization—and surplus property disposal.

SOME OLD-FASHIONED, mince-no-words oratory is expected to flow in the Senate one of these days with Senator Josiah W. Bailey (D.) of North Carolina as the center of attraction.

—: Social Happenings - Personals - News of Interest to Women :—:

Cooperative Dinner Features Grange Meet

Washington Unit Holds Meet At School

SOCIAL CALENDAR

SUNDAY
FARM BUREAU ADVISORY Council 4, of Jackson township, picnic Sunday at noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Riffin, Jackson township.

TUESDAY
LOGAN ELM GRANGE, PICKAWAY school auditorium, Tuesday at 9 p. m.
NEBRASKA GRANGE, THE grange hall, Tuesday at 9 p. m.
SALT CREEK VALLEY grange, Saltcreek township school, Tuesday at 9 p. m. party, asking members of his Sunday school class and the teacher. Games and contests were the diversions of the evening, prizes going to Orlando Brown and Paul Ankrom.

Guests at the affair were: Russell Smith, Wayne Smith, Burns Blevins, Paul Ankrom, Orlando Brown, James Holbrook, Hobart Holbrook, Teddy, Tommy and Danny Davis, Charles Davis, Ranny Roland, Glenn Wallace, David Greeno, Richard Lutz and Gene Davis, the class teacher.

Many useful gifts were presented the honor guest.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Sterling, who was assisted by Mrs. Gene Davis.

Missionary Class
Church of the Brethren Missionary class met at the church Friday for the regular weekly session. Thirteen were present.

The meeting was opened by the group singing of hymns. The Rev. Arthur Cupp led in prayer. Miss Laura Sherman read Corinthians 13 for the Scripture lesson and used as her devotional topic, "Doing Our Best for the Lord."

Class voted to give $10 from the treasury for the Missionary offering at the Sunday afternoon missionary program.

At the close of the meeting, the class gathered for the candlelight consecration service, with the Rev. Russell Sherman dismissing in prayer.

After the worship hour, the class was served refreshments at the parsonage by the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman and family.

Miscellaneous Shower
Mrs. Winifred Conley, Miss Irene Conley and Miss Janice Liston were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower honoring Mrs. Edward Spire, of Plain City, the affair being held at the Conley home, near Derby. Mrs. Spire, the former Emogene Conley, is a bride of July 21.

Fifty-two relatives and friends from Delaware, Columbus, Mt. Sterling and Derby were present. The dining room, where the many beautiful gifts were placed, was decorated in pink and white. Gifts were unwrapped by the bride.

Contests were enjoyed with Mrs. Helen Gibson, Mrs. Franklin Riddle, Mrs. Robert Dountz and Miss Mary Katherine Dick winning prizes. Seasonal refreshments were served.

Pickaway County Garden Club
Pickaway County Garden club held its annual picnic at the home of Mrs. Carrie McCloud, of near Laurelville, Friday. Twenty-two members and guests enjoyed the pleasant afternoon and evening in the Hocking hills.

A bountiful picnic supper was served.

Surprise Shower
Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. McCollister, 366 East Mound street, were honored at a surprise shower Friday at their home by members of the Get-Together club Mrs. McCollister is the former Mary Karshner.

Many lovely and useful gifts were presented the couple and a delightful carry-in lunch was served.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dresbach and daughter, Helen Faye, Winona and Boots Hill, of Stoutsville; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barr and Miss Ruth Boerstler, Amanda, and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Valentine, of Circleville.

The Rev. and Mrs. Russell Sherman and family and Mrs. Harry Woods, of Circleville, were Thursday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodward, Walnut street.

Golden Wedding Anniversary
Mr. and Mrs. George Hammel, of 650 North Court street, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday at their home.

The couple will be honored on the occasion by their daughter, Dr. Lucille Snow, and granddaughter, Mrs. James Burrill, of Wilmette, Ill., who are arriving from 'open house' for the evening from 8 until 10 o'clock. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hammel are asked to call at their home.

Birthday Party
Honoring her son, Ralph, on his eleventh birthday anniversary, Mrs. Charles Sterling, of 536 Elm avenue, entertained recently at

Stricken on Tour

Film star Carol Landis touring U. S. Army posts in Australia for the USO has been confined to her hotel by illness. (International) granddaughter, who returned home after a stay in Circleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wright of Webster, Mo., have returned home after a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brown, West Union street.

Mrs. Henry S. Lewis and Mrs. Emily L. McMordie, of South Court street, are spending a month at Lakeside.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald May and daughter, Mary Louise, of Mansfield, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie D. May, East Franklin street. Mary Louise will remain for a week's visit.

STARS SAY—

For Saturday, August 12

A CONSPICUOUS chance for pushing bold ventures, large ideas and visions, and major new propositions to cherished goals, is indicated by interesting planetary aspects. Working along ambitious lines in connection with important persons or institutions may lead toward high objectives, or under similar auspices there might be a move to attaining influential political or diplomatic power. Work discreetly for this preferment, and also promote ambitions of a more cultural relationship.

Those whose birthday it is may look for a year of great achievement in the direction of new, important and perhaps dramatic goals, and in connection with big business or public corporations. Diplomatic, political or even intellectual and cultural affiliations may likewise be stimulated, and should be sought with discretion and finesse. Be not surprised at some sudden rift, or disruptive events, subtlety or baffling loss.

A child born on this day may have great versatility, creative ability and craft, but a soft, luxurious and indulgent nature may defeat its prospective success.

For Sunday, August 13

SUNDAY'S horoscope points to high activities in the way of celebrations, parties, diversions and gala occasions in domestic, social and affectional life with probable culminations in courtships or marriages. Yet there are signs of excesses and over indulgence with regrets unless the feelings and emotions be kept under firm supervision. Be alert to treachery; and false words or writings. Also be on guard against physical dangers. With care, success and happiness are shown.

Those whose birthday it is may expect a successful and prosperous year if they will be alert to fraud, treachery and underhand dealings especially with all papers or documents and with speech. Also shun impulsive or over emotional indulgences or excesses, offensive to elders. Affectional affairs may reach happy culminations in engagements or marriage. Be conservative in expenditures and safeguard the health.

A child born on this day may be impulsive and tempestuous, but have a kindly and sociable nature, popular and happy.

OVERCOMING OF FEAR WILL BE SERMON TOPIC

"Overcoming Our Fears" is the topic chosen by the Rev. Clarence Swearingen of the First Methodist church for his sermon for the Sunday morning worship service. He hopes to show that while fear is an instinctive emotion that may render us a service, it is also the arch-demon of all life. According to the Rev. Mr. Swearingen, we all live in fear of something, it may be ill-health, want, old age or death; it may be fear of consequences, fear of the unknown, fear of others or fear of ourselves.

He plans to show in his sermon how our fears will have a disastrous effect on the body, mind and soul, that fear confuses the mind and disorganizes the will, and the result is a feeling of misery,

The Priest in the Life of Israel

A certain man named Elkanah, had two wives, Hannah and Peninnah. The latter had children but Hanna did not, so she went to the temple and prayed to the Lord for one.

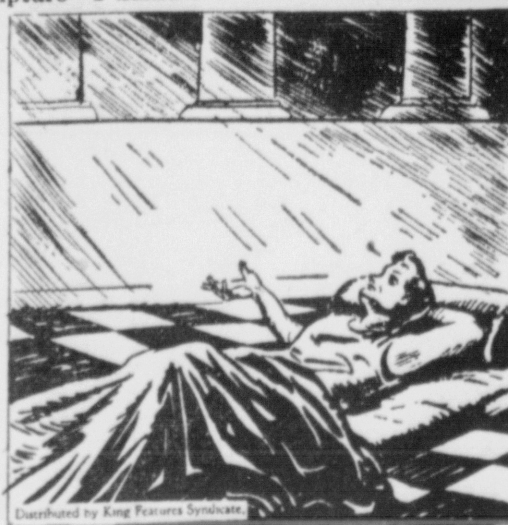

Hannah had a son whom she named Samuel and she lent him to the Lord; he lived in the temple and ministered to Eli, the priest, who had two wicked sons in the temple.

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Scripture—I Samuel 1—4:18

By Alfred J. Buescher

Eli grew old and his sight failed, and the Lord called Samuel when he was asleep and told him that Eli and all his house should perish; and Samuel told Eli what was said.

The Israelites were beaten in battle by the Philistines, the Ark of the Covenant was taken, Eli's sons killed, and Eli fell from a wayside seat and died. GOLDEN TEXT—Hebrew 5:1

Church Notices

Circleville Pilgrim Church
James O. Miller, pastor
Sunday school, 10 a. m.
Morning worship, 11 a. m.
Evening service, 8 p. m.
Prayer meeting Thursday, 8:30 p. m.

Church of the Brethren
Rev. Russell Sherman, pastor
Sunday school, 9:30 a. m., Doyle Cupp, superintendent; morning worship, 10:45 a. m.; prayer service, 7:30 p. m.; evening worship, 8 p. m.; prayer service, Wednesday, 8 p. m.; Young People's service, Friday, 8 p. m.

Christian Science Society
216 South Court Street
11 a. m. Sunday, lesson sermon; 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, testimony meeting. An invitation to attend these meetings and to visit the Reading Room, which is open daily, is extended to all.

Trinity Lutheran
Rev. G. L. Troutman, pastor
Sunday school, 9 a. m., Ned Dresbach, adult superintendent, Mrs. Galet Mowery, junior and primary department superintendent; worship service, 10:15 a. m.

Church of the Nazarene
Rev. C. A. Way, pastor
Sunday school, 9:30 a. m.; worship hour, 10:45 a. m.; N. Y. P. S. service, 7:30 p. m.; evening service, 8 p. m.

Church of Christ in Christian Union
Rev. Ross W. Hayslip, pastor
9:30 a. m., church school; 10:30, worship service; 8:30 p. m., young peoples' service; 7 p. m., junior church service; 7:30 p. m., evangelistic service; 7:30 p. m., Wednesday, evening prayer service.

St. Paul A. M. E.
Rev. M. H. Johnson, pastor
Sunday school, 9 a. m.; Rosie May Davis, secretary; Phillip Holmes, superintendent; preaching, 10 a. m.; Prayer meeting, Wednesday, 8 p. m.

Calvary Evangelical
Rev. B. F. Borcoman, pastor
Sunday school, 9 a. m.; C. O. Leist, superintendent; worship, 10 a. m.; evening services, 7:30. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening, 8:00.

St. Joseph's Catholic Church
Rev. Fr. Edward Reidy, rector
Sunday masses at 7:30 and 9:30 a. m.; week day at 7:30 a. m.

First Methodist Church
Clarence Swearingen, pastor
9:15 a. m., church school. W. Earl Hilyard, superintendent, 10:30 a. m., worship.

Second Baptist Church
Rev. Harold Wingo, pastor
Sunday school, 9:30 a. m., Robert Jones, superintendent; Joan Byrd, secretary; Grace Locklear, clerk; worship service, 10:45 a. m.; worship service 3 p. m. B.Y.P.U., 6:30 p. m.

First United Brethren Church
Rev. J. E. Huston, pastor
Sunday school, 9:15 a. m., Sheldon Canter, superintendent; morning worship, 10:30 a. m.; evening worship, 7:30 p. m.

of panic and defeat. He will discuss how to overcome these paralyzing fears that make life a burden.

Elliot Barnhill will sing "The Lost Chord", by Sullivan. Hunter Chambers will be at the organ console.

The Golden Text

Child Samuel presented to Eli

"For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God."—Hebrew 5:1

Camp Grounds Ready For Annual Assembly Starting Wednesday

The "Mount of Praise" camp ground on East Ohio street is ready for the opening next Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. A new concrete floor has been placed in the big tabernacle and each individual seat has been securely fastened to the floor. Most all of the buildings have been painted white, except the dining room, which is "doomed to die" and be replaced by a new one as soon as it becomes possible to obtain the necessary materials for building. All of the eight large dormitories have been renovated and placed in order, as well as the other buildings; bed-clothing laundered and dry-cleaned, roofs and minor repairs made and everything in good order for the opening service.

All available reservations have been spoken for and more than a hundred other requests have been made for rooms that are not to be had on the grounds. All cottages on the ground will be occupied, and everything points to a very successful camp.

The Council of the Churches of Christ in Christian Union of Ohio will hold an early morning and an afternoon session each day the first week, with a regular camp meeting service at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The engaged evangelists will begin their work on the first Friday night of the meetings, featuring three evangelistic services each day.

The engaged evangelists are Rev. T. M. Anderson, of Wilmore, Ky., Rev. H. M. Couchenour and Rev. Paul Stewart will be on the speaking staff for their first year; E. Clay Milby will again direct the camp meeting chorus and Rev. Edna Leonard will have charge of the children's meetings. Many missionaries and other gospel workers are to be in attendance and have part in the meetings. All services are open to the public.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

A piano in a home is a major investment, and should be given the best care. The old rule of never placing a piano near a window is still good. Dampness can quickly injure the best instrument. Extreme heat also is bad for a piano, injuring both finish and tone. In Summer, do not put the piano where sunlight can stream over it for long periods during the day. In Winter it should be kept away from registers or radiators.

A teaspoon of vinegar beaten into the cake frosting at the time the flavoring is added will keep the frosting soft.

Sell Your Cream and Eggs
CO-OPERATIVELY
to the Pickaway Dairy
Ass'n.
W. Main St. Circleville

Attend Your Church
Sunday

Open May to ?

Monday through Friday
8:00 a. m. to 7:30 p. m.
Saturday
8:00 a. m. to 10:30 p. m.
Sunday
8:00 a. m. to Noon

The Circleville
Ice Co.

HOMECOMING TO BE FEATURE AT C. OF B. CHURCH

All-day Homecoming services will be conducted Sunday, August 13, at the Church of the Brethren, corner of Pickaway and Logan streets. The day's services will be in part a farewell to the Rev. Russell Sherman and family, of Garrett, Ind., who have been in Circleville for the Summer while the pastor was serving as supply for the congregation.

The Rev. Mr. Sherman and his family, after spending a few days at Garrett, will remove to Phoenix, Arizona, where he will serve as pastor of the Church of the Brethren of that city.

The new permanent pastor of the local church, the Rev. Lester E. Fike, and his family are expected to arrive about September 1.

The program for the day includes: Bible school at 9:30 a. m.; morning worship, at 10:30 a. m.; missionary session, 2 p. m. with the Rev. Lon Karns, of Dayton, as speaker; evening session, beginning at 7:30 p. m. There will be a basket lunch served at noon.

A feature of the evening meeting will be the burning of the mortgage which was carried on the parsonage and which was paid off recently. The speaker at this meeting will be the Rev. D. R. Murray, of Columbus. There will be special music at all the sessions.

Those who attend the services at the church on Sunday will be greeted by a completely repainted church plant. The painting of the parsonage was a cooperative project, the pastor and the men of the church doing the work. Edward Peters and his crew expect to finish the church by Saturday. The Rev. Mr. Sherman announces that the church extends a warm welcome to all members, neighbors and friends to share in the worship and fellowship of the day. He reports also that he and his family have enjoyed not only the fine fellowship with his congregation, but also the very friendly reception given them by the entire community, during their few weeks in Circleville.

ANYTHING IN INSURANCE

Consult HUMMEL & PLUM

The Service Agency
1 O. O. F. Bldg. Phone 143

Attend Your Church
Sunday

Rent a Safe and Economical
SAFETY DEPOSIT
BOX

at
THE THIRD
NATIONAL BANK
"Where Service Predominates"

Attend Your Church
Sunday

Church Briefs

There will be no church service Sunday, August 20, at the Calvary Evangelical church, South Washington street, as the pastor, the Rev. B. F. Borcoman, will be in Loraine, attending the annual Evangelical Conference August 16-20. Sunday school will be conducted as usual.

Holy Communion will be observed at the morning worship service at the United Brethren church.

The Shining Light Bible class will meet Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the United Brethren community house.

"In Remembrance of Me" will be the sermon subject of the Rev. J. E. Huston at the Sunday morning service at the United Brethren church. He will use "Cures for Fear" for his evening topic.

Boys of the United Brethren ball team will play Monday at 9:30 p. m.

Prayer service of the United Brethren church will be Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at the church.

"God's Wonderful Being and Incomprehensible Ways" is the topic of the sermon to be presented Sunday at the morning worship service by the Rev. George Troutman at Trinity Lutheran church. The text is taken from Romans 11, verses 33-36.

Brighten Up!

Sherwin - Williams Paint, Enameloid, Semi Lustre, Floor Enamel, Porch and Deck Paint, Varnishes, etc. Also Turpentine, Waxes, Polishes, Cleaners and Water Softener.

Grand-Girard's
The Friendly Drug Store

Attend Your Church
Sunday

WATCH OUR WINDOW

Sensenbrenner's
"Watch Shop"

111 N. Court St. Crist Bldg.

Attend Your Church
Sunday

IT'S BETTER!
COOK WITH ELECTRICITY

COLUMBUS and SOUTHERN OHIO
ELECTRIC CO.

Attend Your Church
Sunday

RENT A SAFE AND ECONOMICAL

SAFETY DEPOSIT
BOX

at
THE THIRD
NATIONAL BANK
"Where Service Predominates"

CLASSIFIED ADS

Classified Ad Rates

To order a classified ad just telephone 725 and ask for an ad-taker. She will quote rates and help you write your ad. You may mail your ad to The Circleville Herald if you prefer.

WORD RATE
Per word, each insertion ..... 2c
Per word, 3 consecutive insertions ..... 4c
Per word, 6 insertions ..... 7c
Minimum charge one time ..... 25c
Obituaries $1 minimum.
Cards of Thanks 50c per insertion.
Meetings and Events 50c per insertion.

Publisher reserves the right to edit or reject all classified advertising copy. Ads ordered for more than one time and cancelled before expiration will only be charged for the number of times the ad appears and adjustments made at the rate earned. Publishers reserve the right to classify ads under the appropriate headings.

Classified Ads received until 9 o'clock a. m. will be published same day. Publishers are responsible for only one incorrect insertion of an ad. Out of town advertising household goods, etc. must be cash with order.

Real Estate for Sale

40 ACRES—Route 22 west of Williamsport, good 7-room house and outbuildings, exceptionally good soil, electricity, bus line.
DONALD H. WATT, Broker
Phones 70 and 730
Circleville, Ohio

HOMES—INVESTMENT PROPERTIES
MACK D. PARRETT, Broker

ATTRACTIVE home on East Main street, could easily be made into duplex or used as tourist home.
DONALD H. WATT, Broker
Phones 70 and 730
Circleville, Ohio

4 ROOMS, bath (tub only), gas, water and electricity, cistern, cellar. Excellent condition in and out, fenced. On rear of lot is a four-room cottage that rents well. Will trade for 3-5 acres with 6-room house in country. Good investment double, 1 acre, four-room cottage, electricity, good well, fruit trees.
GEORGE C. BARNES, Broker
Masonic Temple

50 ACRES—East of Ashville, 6-room house, good outbuildings, productive soil, one-half interest in crops, immediate possession.
DONALD H. WATT, Broker
Phones 70 and 730
Circleville, Ohio

5.32 ACRES, two miles north of Circleville, Rt. 23. Modern 6-room house, 52 gallon automatic water heater, water softener, venetian blinds, asphalt shingle roof. Inquire G. R. Defenbaugh, Rt. 3.

100 ACRES—Cedar Hill territory, modern house, good buildings, productive soil.
DONALD H. WATT, Broker
Phones 70 and 730
Circleville, Ohio

195 ACRES, good dairy farm, near Circleville, 100 acres, first and second bottom black land, balance clay, 8 acres woods. One mile gravel road frontage, some creek frontage, fenced and tiled. 6-room house, slate roof, electricity, water, good barn, 34x44. 12 stanchions, other buildings. Clarence O'Brien, 52 E. Gay St., Columbus. Phone 2647 or Kings 1296.

152 ACRES—Cedar Hill territory, new barn and silo, good house, 100-acre orchard, productive soil.
DONALD H. WATT, Broker
Phones 70 and 730
Circleville, Ohio

PICKAWAY COUNTY FARMS FOR SALE

Look this list over if you are interested in good farms. Priced to sell $100 A.; 800 A.; 730 A.; 600 A.; 500 A.; 245 A.; 234 A.; 255 A.; 230 A.; 209 A.; 220 A.; 180 A.; 155 A.; 165 A.; 134 A.; 182 A.; 92 A.; 53 A.; 9 A.; Several hundred farms in adjoining counties.

W. D. HEISKELL
Williamsport Phones 27 and 28

85 ACRES—Close to Walnut township School, 7-room frame house, bank barn, other outbuildings, possession 30 days.
DONALD H. WATT, Broker
Phones 70 and 730
Circleville, Ohio

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

A Detailed Reference to Business Facilities of Circleville

AUCTIONEERS
CHESTER E. ALSPACH
Canal Winchester, O. Ph. 7-7368

WALTER BUMGARDNER
R. F. D. 2 Phone 1981

BOYD HORN
225 Walnut Street Phone 1073

VETERINARIANS
DR. C. W. CROMLEY
Pet Hospital—Boarding.
Ambulance. Phone 4, Ashville.

DR. FLOYD P. DUNLAP
454 N. Court St. Ph. 315 or 606

SALLY'S SALLIES

"Stop the boat, captain! My hat!"

Articles for Sale

1 H. P. Briggs & Stratton electric radio. 353 E. Union St.

SPECIAL Victory Garden Hose. 25 ft. $1.50; 50 ft. $3.00. Kochheiser Hardware.

COW: sow and nine pigs. James Hardesty, south of Pickaway township school.

2 YEAR OLD registered Hereford bull; 8 months old registered Hereford bull; other cattle. Son leaving for service, necessary to cut down farm program. Phone 2041 Laurelvale.

5 WINDOW frames 33x27; all metal ice refrigerator, 100-lb. capacity, top icer; all glass show case, metal frame, 5 ft. long; 3 small counter cases. T. D. Emerson, Kingston, O.

ALL SIZE wringer rolls in stock. Ballou's Radio Service, 239 E. Main St.

MCCORMICK - DEERING cream separator, good condition. Phone 4128 Clarksburg exchange.

SEWING MACHINE, dresser. 226 Walnut St.

"SANI-CEDAR" Dog Bedding, kills odors, makes coat glossy—bushel bag, 75c. Circleville Lumber Co., Edison Ave.

2, 3 and 4 INCH pipe suitable for end posts, braces. All lengths. CIRCLEVILLE IRON & METAL CO.
Phone 3—Mill and Clinton Sts.

112 RATS killed with Schutte's Rat Killer. Harpster & Yost.

Doors—Sash

Trim, tables, kindling and miscellaneous lumber including some walnut.
Old CAC building.

Stansbury and Stout
Phone 74

Wanted to Rent

ROOMS in private homes within a reasonable distance of the camp ground on East Ohio street for camp meeting attendees. Telephone 510. Call any day after Sunday.

4 OR 5 ROOM unfurnished apartment or small house. 420 S. Court St.

MOVING

CIRCLEVILLE TRANSFER CO.
223 S. Scioto Street Phone 1227

REAL ESTATE DEALERS
W. C. MORRIS
Phone 234,
Basement 219 S. Court St.

RETAIL LUMBER DEALERS
CIRCLEVILLE LUMBER CO.
150 Edison Avenue Phone 269

DAIRY PRODUCTS DEALERS
PICKAWAY DAIRY ASSN.
Pickaway Butter Phone 29

Public Sales

No charge for publication of sales under this heading where regular advertising has been ordered in The Herald. Set your date early and get the benefit of this extra publication.

TUESDAY, AUG. 15th
At west edge of Five Points, Pickaway county, 14 miles northwest of Circleville and 5 miles southeast of Mt. Sterling on St. Route 56, at 2 o'clock. Real estate, Walters Farm, W. O. Bumgarner, auctioneer.

FRIDAY, AUG. 18
On Crownover Farm, 7½ miles southeast of Mt. Sterling and 2 miles west of Orange Hall, commencing at 1 o'clock. Mrs. A. H. Crownover, W. O. Bumgarner, auctioneer.

TUESDAY, AUG. 22
At residence 4 miles northwest of Williamsport, 10 miles southeast of Mt. Sterling, and three miles south of Five Points on Yankeetown-Dawson pike, beginning at 12 o'clock. Mrs. James Porter, W. O. Bumgarner, auctioneer.

THURSDAY, AUG. 24
At residence located 7½ miles southwest of Circleville, 2½ miles north of Yellowbud on State route 104 commencing at 12 o'clock. Arthur Barthelmas, Chaflin & Updyke, auctioneers.

PUBLIC SALE of REAL ESTATE

The Waidelich farm, located on the Tariton road, about five miles east of Circleville, Ohio, consisting of 84 acres will be sold on the premises.

Mon., Aug. 28, 1944

At 2 o'clock EWT.

This farm has a good 7-room house with good barn and other buildings. The land is level and with good fertile soil and will make an excellent home.

Terms—10% cash, balance within 30 days.

LEIST & LEIST, Attorneys, executors of Charles Waidelich estate.
Emanuel Dresbach, auctioneer.

PUBLIC SALE

The undersigned will sell at public auction at his residence, 1 mile south of Williamsport on the Williamsport and Chillicothe pike

Thurs., Aug. 17

Beginning at 1:00 o'clock p. m., the following personal property:

SOME HOUSEHOLD GOODS
75 YOUNG BARRED ROCK CHICKENS
BROODER HOUSE, 8x10
SOME LUMBER AND OTHER ARTICLES

Albert Knece

Harry Melvin, auctioneer.
Wayne Hoover, clerk.

Legal Notice

LEGAL NOTICE
Notice is hereby given that pursuant to a resolution passed by the Board of County Commissioners of Pickaway county, Ohio, in the matter of vacating a roadway situated in Washington township, Pickaway county, Ohio, that portion of road to be vacated is between the lands of J. B. Woods, George C. Burkhardt, Turner and Hulda Leist, W. O. Myers and Omer E. DeLong, and more fully described as follows:

Beginning at a point in the line between the lands of J. B. Woods and George C. Burkhardt, Thence in a northeasterly direction and across the land of said George C. Burkhardt, Turner and Hulda Leist, W. O. Myers and Omer E. DeLong to a point opposite the westerly line of what is known as the "Stout" graveyard, and the approximate distance being about eight tenths (8/10) of a mile.

The said County Commissioners of Pickaway county will view the same under the provisions of Section 6525, C. & C. sec. on Monday, August 21, 1944, at 2 p. m., o'clock p. m., Eastern War Time, and notice is hereby given that a hearing on the above proposal will be held at the office of the County Commissioners of Pickaway county, Ohio in the City of Circleville, Ohio, on Monday, August 28th, 1944 at 2:00 o'clock p. m., Eastern War Time.

By order of the County Commissioners of Pickaway county, Ohio.

FORREST SHORT, AUDITOR
Pickaway County, Ohio.
(August 5, 1944).

20-YEAR-OLD GIRLS BATTLE FOR GOLF TITLE

CHICAGO, Aug. 12—Two twenty-year-old golfers, defending champion Dorothy Germain of Philadelphia and Phyllis Otto of Omaha, Neb., met today in the 36-hole final of the women's Western amateur golf championship over the Onwentsia course.

Long driving Miss Germain, who seeks to be the seventh player to win the title in successive years, entered the final round Friday when she defeated Mrs. H. M. Sims of Evanston 4 and 3.

Miss Otto won her semi-final match with a decisive 7 and 6 defeat of Georgia Tainter of Fargo, N. D.

HAIL THE HEROINE WHO PITCHED NO-HIT GAME

TEAM MATES of Carolyn Morris, Phoenix, Ariz., girl pitcher for the Rockford, Ill., Peaches of the All-American Girls Professional league, give her a ride in celebration of the no-hit no-run game she pitched against Max Carey's Milwaukee Girls club. Carolyn's no-hitter was well-timed—for it occurred on the day Rockford was honoring its 1943 ace girl pitcher, Olive Little of Poplar Point, Manitoba, Canada, who tossed the only no-hit game achieved in the league last season. (International)

FULL SOFTBALL CARD PLANNED

JayCees, Blue Ribbon To Play Monday; Playoff Set For Tuesday

A full program of softball in Ted Lewis park next week was announced Saturday.

Monday evening first game of the junior league will be played. Games also are set for Tuesday and Wednesday.

Blue Ribbon and Junior Chamber of Commerce will meet Monday in a postponed City softball league game.

If the Dairy team wins the playoff for the league championship will be staged Tuesday evening. A victory for Blue Ribbon would leave the team tied with Circle City for the league title and the one-game playoff would result.

Wednesday evening the city tournament will start. It was originally scheduled to open Thursday evening but has been moved up a day because of the Pickaway county Farmers and Sportsmen association picnic Thursday evening at Gold Cliff. Second game is set for Friday evening.

EASTERN CLUBS OPEN LONG HOME STANDS TODAY

By International News Service
The American Association's eastern division clubs—Toledo, Columbus, Louisville and Indianapolis—today opened their last long home stands as the AA season approached the three-quarter mark.

And as the eastern teams prepared to play host to their western rivals for the last time this year, the Milwaukee Brewers continued to set the tempo with Toledo filling in as runnerup—nine and a half games off the pace of the Brewers. Louisville was in third place—behind Milwaukee by the same number of games as the Mud Hens but one percentage point below the Toledo club.

St. Paul, Minneapolis, Indianapolis and Kansas City, in that order, made up the second division.

Most AA observers conceded that the final league standings will differ little from the present status.

Today's schedule sends Kansas City against Columbus, Minneapolis against Indianapolis, Milwaukee against Toledo and St. Paul against Louisville.

NAVAL TRAINEES TO PLAY ON 1944 WOOSTER ELEVEN

WOOSTER, O., Aug. 12—Athletic Director L. C. Boles of the college of Wooster announced today that the college this coming season will have a football team composed of naval trainees now, taking academic refresher courses there.

He said that head coach John Swigart will select his squad from among 115 trainees who arrived on the campus July 27 and a similar group scheduled to arrive Sept. 21.

REDS BLAST 17 HITS; DEFEAT BRAVES 12 TO 6

CINCINNATI, Aug. 12—The Cincinnati Reds needed a victory over the Boston Braves today to gain an even break in the four-game series which ends with a single game today.

Friday the Reds romped to a 12-6 triumph over the Beantown club to chalk up their first victory in three starts against the Braves.

The Reds shoved across five runs in the fifth inning and six more in the sixth to turn the contest into a rout and blasted a total of 17 hits. Frank McCormick's three-run homer featured the fifth inning onslaught. Three Boston players, Clarence Etchison, Clyde Klutts and Charley Workman clubbed Pitches Ed Heusser and Tomas de la Cruz for round trippers.

Heusser gained credit for the win, although he was relieved in the sixth inning.

HUNTING RULES APPROVED BY OHIO COMMISSION

COLUMBUS, Aug. 12—Tentative hunting regulations for the coming Fall season which were passed by the conservation commission last June, were confirmed by the commission at its regular monthly meeting, Commissioner Don Waters revealed today.

Special action was taken permitting trapping in the Muskingum reservoirs. Permits are to be issued for this purpose similar to the hunting permits issued in these sectors.

Waterfowl regulations of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service were adopted. Although Ohio is in the northern zone, five days of additional open season at the season's beginning and closing are allowed.

The new digest of the game laws will soon be distributed to license dealers. Few changes appear in the regulations over those of last year, Waters said.

OKLAHOMA AIRMEN WIN FIRST TOURNEY START

WICHITA, Kan., Aug. 12—The Enid, Okla., army air field team, runners-up in the 1943 of the national semi-pro baseball tournament, took their first step along the road to the 1944 title Friday night when it beat Lowry field, from Denver, Col., 3 to 0.

As part of the first evening's play, fans and scouts watched a "wrong way" ball game and while the scouts found it a bit bewildering but novel, the fans enjoyed it.

Baseballers in the "wrong way" game had their choice of running either to first or third base after getting a hit.

"It's a good show but it isn't practical" was the comment of Tom Greenwade, Brooklyn Dodgers scout, while Jack Ryan, talent seeker for the St. Louis Cards, said "it would work for a traveling ball club."

12 LEADING HORSES RUN AT CHICAGO TODAY

CHICAGO, Aug. 12—Twelve of the nation's best three year old race horses were entered today in Washington park's $15,000 added Dick Welles handicap.

Heading the field were Allen Drumheller's Sirde and the Calu-

Hughson to Navy

TEX Hughson, above, star Boston Red Sox moundman, hurled his 18th victory of the season, beating the Chicago White Sox, 9-1, and thus closed his baseball career for the duration. His next stop—a United States Navy boot training camp.

NEW YORK RACING RING BROKEN UP BY OFFICIALS

NEW YORK, Aug. 12—A New York racing racket that took its toll from out-of-town victims on fake tip-offs lay exposed today and 10 men were under arrest on charges of forgery and grand larceny.

The confidence game thrived on the gullibility of those men on the ring's sucker list as well as the track knowledge of four suspended jockeys who were part of the ring. The swindle set-up was estimated to have netted over $75,000 in the last seven months.

Detectives who rounded up the men said that four ex-jockeys played the key roles in the swindle, representing themselves in the telephone conversations as current track riders.

Arrested were: Herbert Bajur, barred from riding in 1935 at Lincoln park, Chicago; Kenneth McCombs of New York, barred at Arlington, in Chicago, 1943; Maynard H. Wright, 48, of 559 W. Jackson Blvd., Chicago; and the following others of New York: Donald A. Terry, Nicholas Flore, Louis Turner, barred at Hagers-town, Md., in 1939; Samuel Korbin, Sidney Beckerman and Leon Keshian, manager of a telegraph service.

SIS WAGNER FAVORITE AS BEULAH MEET OPENS

COLUMBUS, Aug. 12—Central Ohio's third and final racing meet of the year opens today at Beulah Park, at nearby Grove City, with the $1,000 Inaugural Handicap as the get-off feature.

The meet, lasting for 20 days, will continue through Sept. 4. Sis Wagner, owned by Mrs. Leo met farm's entry of Pensive and Miss Keeneland.

The Coward and Dupuy entry of Doggone and Appleknocker, were three to one favorites along with Pensive and Miss Keeneland.

BROWNS STREAK IS SNAPPED BY DONALD, YANKS

St. Louis Loses No Ground As Boston Loses, Too; Cards Pound Phils

The St. Louis Browns Saturday hadn't lost any ground in the American league race despite the fact the New York Yankees snapped the 10-game winning streak of the Browns.

While the Browns were losing 6-1 to Atley Donald and the Yanks Friday the Chicago White Sox slugged out a 9-7 victory over the second place Boston Red Sox.

Philadelphia's Athletics exploded seven straight hits in the second inning off Mel Harder and Paul Calvert and went on to trim the Cleveland Indians 6-3. Detroit's Tigers continued their slugging, trouncing the Washington Senators, 11-4.

The St. Louis Cardinals again buried the Philadelphia Phils under a barrage of base hits and won 9-4. The Pittsburgh Pirates needed only one inning to beat the New York Giants but were not satisfied with seven runs in the fifth inning and piled up a 12-4 margin.

The Cincinnati Reds, led by big Frank McCormick who hit a homer and three singles, smashed out 17 hits to down the Boston Braves 12-6. The Reds scored five runs in the fifth and six in the sixth.

The Brooklyn Dodgers again shocked everybody including themselves by taking their third straight game from the Cubs, winning 9-7 in 11 innings.

Standings

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Team	L	W	Pct.
St. Louis	75	27	.733
Cincinnati	56	45	.554
Pittsburgh	52	49	.510
New York	50	55	.476
Chicago	46	52	.469
Boston	43	55	.438
Brooklyn	42	62	.419
Philadelphia	42	61	.404

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Team	L	W	Pct.
St. Louis	64	45	.598
Boston	55	46	.545
Detroit	55	50	.524
New York	54	50	.519
Cleveland	51	56	.454
Chicago	51	55	.481
Philadelphia	47	61	.435
Washington	47	61	.435

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
Team	L	W	Pct.
Milwaukee	58	37	.604
Toledo	50	46	.520
Louisville	47	47	.500
COLUMBUS	46	43	.513
St. Paul	45	42	.512
Minneapolis	42	42	.500
Indianapolis	38	36	.514
Kansas City	32	39	.448

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Brooklyn, 7, Chicago, 6 (11 innings).
Cincinnati, 12, Boston, 8.
St. Louis, 9, Philadelphia, 4.
Pittsburgh, 12, New York, 4.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

New York, 9, St. Louis, 1.
Chicago, 9, Boston, 7.
Detroit, 11, Washington, 4.
Philadelphia, 6, Cleveland, 5.
(No games scheduled.)

GAMES TODAY

NATIONAL LEAGUE
New York (Voile) at Pittsburgh (Butcher).
Brooklyn (Melton) at Chicago (Lynn).
Boston (Hutchinson) at Cincinnati (Shoun or Gorman).
Philadelphia (Kennedy or Lee) at St. Louis (Lander or Jurisich).
(Night)

AMERICAN LEAGUE
St. Louis (Potter) at New York (Dubb).
Detroit (Gentry) at Washington (Wolf).
Cleveland (Jagby) at Philadelphia (Flores).
Chicago (Lopat) at Boston (Bowman).

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

KANSAS CITY (Carter) at COLUMBUS (Ananick).
Minneapolis (Minnick) at Milwaukee (Atwood).

ROOM AND BOARD

By GENE AHERN

BLONDIE

By CHIC YOUNG

POPEYE

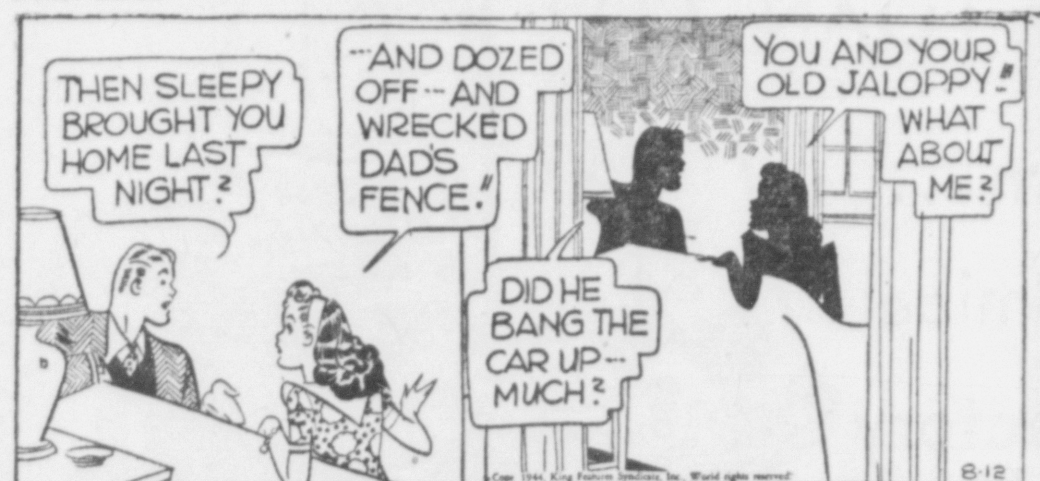

TILLIE THE TOILER

BRICK BRADFORD

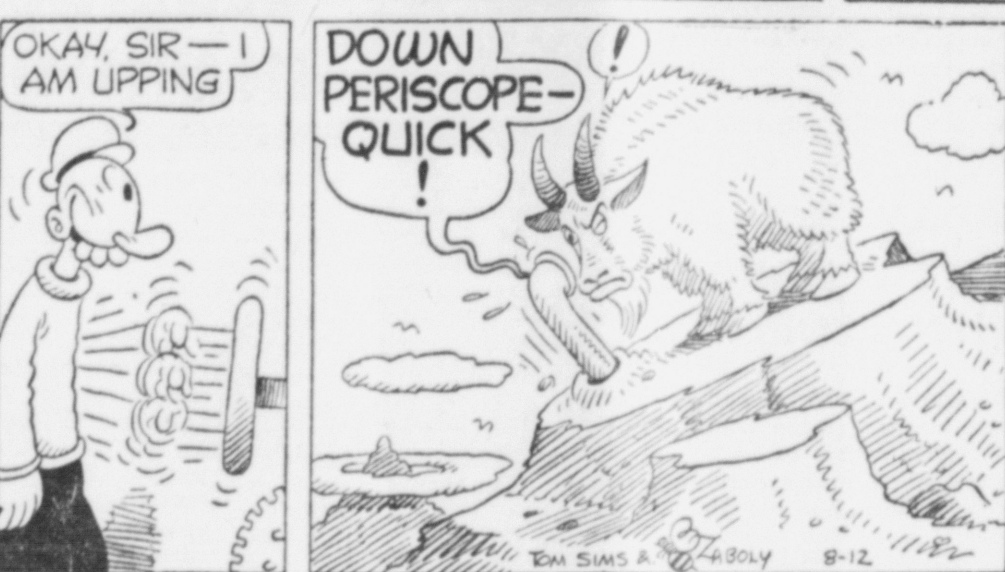

ETTA KETT

MUGGS McGINNIS

DONALD DUCK

On The Air

SATURDAY
6:00 Sunset Melodies, WLW;
6:30 News, WBNS;
7:00 Music, WBNS;
7:30 Thanks to Yanks, WBNS;
8:00 Ellery Queen, WLW;
8:30 Grocky, WBNS;
9:00 Irish Rose, WLW;
9:30 Inner Sanctum, WBNS;
10:00 Frank Sinatra, WBNS;
10:30 Barry Wood, WLW;
11:00 News, WBNS;
11:30 Skyway to Victory, WLW;
12:00 Casey, WBNS.
SUNDAY
1:00 Church of the Air, WBNS;
1:30 Boys Town, WLW;
2:00 Music, WBNS;
2:30 Fighting Song, WBNS;
3:00 News, WBNS;
3:30 Luther, WBNS;
4:00 Family Hour, WBNS;
4:30 Baseball Scores, WBNS;
5:00 Steelmakers, WBNS;
5:30 Theatre, WBNS;
6:00 America in Air, WBNS;
6:30 News, WBNS;
7:00 News, WBNS;
7:30 The People, WBNS;
8:00 Grace Florida, WLW;
8:30 Pigeon, WBNS;
9:00 Merry Go Round, WBNS;
9:30 Fred Allen, WBNS;
10:00 Take It or Leave It, WBNS;
10:30 This Man, WBNS;
11:00 News of the World, WBNS;
11:30 Jan Garber, WBNS;
12:00 River, WLW.
MONDAY
1:00 Life Beautiful, WBNS;
1:30 News, WBNS;
2:00 Kierman's Corner, WBNS;
2:30 Swing Serenade, WBNS;
3:00 Morton Downey, WBNS;
3:30 News and Music, WBNS;
4:00 Broadway Matinee, WBNS;
4:30 Tea Dance, WBNS;
5:00 Lorenzo Jones, WBNS;
5:30 News, WBNS;
6:00 Star Parade, WLW;
6:30 Jones, WBNS;
7:00 Love a Mystery, WBNS;
7:30 Blondie, WBNS;
8:00 Vox Pop, WBNS;
8:30 American Cavalcade, WLW;
9:00 News, WBNS;
9:30 Radio Theatre, WBNS;
10:00 Spotlight Bands, WBNS;
10:30 Fifth War Loan, All Stations;
11:00 News, WBNS;
11:30 Tony Pastor, WBNS;

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

ACROSS
1. Stylish
5. Efrontery
9. Corridor
10. On the ocean
11. Firearm
12. Garden tool
13. Insect
14. Close to
17. Level
18. Therefore
19. Sons of a king
21. Fleishy fruit
23. Decay
24. Firmament
25. Cry of a crow
26. Donkey
29. Craze
30. Leave out
31. Type of poker hands
34. Negative reply
35. Pineapple
36. River (Chin.)
37. Past
38. Solar disks
40. Venture
42. Therefore
43. Always
44. Worry
45. Bodies of water

DOWN
1. American Indian
2. Hilt of a knife
3. Sick
4. Distinct
5. Fuel
6. Appearance
7. Permission
8. Dips out
11. Grades
13. Type measure
16. Deglamatory outpourings
19. Presiding Elder (abbr.)
20. At the present time
22. Belonging to me
25. Feline
26. Part of "to be"
27. Those who sing
28. Rusted
29. Rim for strength
30. Bone
31. Falconoid birds
32. Inanimate
33. Floats

Yesterday's Answer
25. Father
27. Region
29. Female pig
41. Hall!

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK By R. J. SCOTT

Most of the 10-GALLON HATS BOUGHT IN THE WEST AS COWBOY EQUIPMENT ARE MADE IN PHILADELPHIA

JOHN L. SULLIVAN WON THE HEAVY-WEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP BY BEATING TOMMY RYAN, A MAN FIFTY YEARS OF AGE. JOHN L. WAS ONLY 24!

HOW MANY KINDS OF LILLIES ARE USED FOR FOOD? FOUR—GARLIC, ONION, SHALLOTS AND CHIVES

only Summer appearance to welcome the return of comedian to the nation's airwaves. Bergen, who will return to his own show on September 3, has just completed a nationwide USO tour entertaining the sick and wounded members of our armed forces. The comedian took Charlie McCarthy, Mortimer Snerd and a regular unit along with him to coax smiles out of the men who do not feel like smiling.

MEDLEY OF RODGERS SONGS
Four songs by Richard Rodgers are featured in a medley, when Rose Bampton of the Metropolitan Opera Company and her conductor-husband Wilfred Pelletier air their "Vacation Serenade," on Monday, "Thou Swell," "My Heart Stood Still," "Where or When" and "Isn't It Romantic," make up the medley, with Miss Bampton singing the second and fourth numbers.

LISTEN!
TONIGHT
5:00 Casey, Photographer
5:30 Mother and Dad
6:00 JIM COOPER, NEWS
6:15 Johnny Jones
6:30 Edna Ward, Organist
6:45 THE WORLD TODAY
6:55 BOB TROUT
7:00 Maritime
7:30 Mrs. Miniver
8:00 Kenny Baker
8:30 Inner Sanctum
8:55 NED CALMER, NEWS
9:00 Your Hit Parade
9:15 Saturday Serenade
10:15 Correction Please
10:45 CBS Talks
11:00 JIM COOPER, NEWS
11:30 Dance Orchestra
12:00 NEWS
12:05 Glen Gray Orchestra
12:30 Eddy Howard Orchestra
1:00 NEWS

TURN "DATE BAIT"
Amzie Strickland, former assistant to Tom Wallace, producer of "Blind Date," who used to select the service men contestants, turns glamour girl herself and acts as date bait on the program. Other girls to be heard are Judy Blake, radio television actress, and Marcella "Rusty" Markham, legitimate stage actress. Six service men will compete to take them to New York's Stork Club at the sponsor's expense.

MELTON BUSY
Next week will be a memorable one for James Melton, the Metropolitan Opera tenor. Sunday he stars on his radio program; Monday he reports at the film lots for movie work and Tuesday he gives his first full concert at the Hollywood Bowl with the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra under the direction of George Szell.

RADIO NEWS NOTES
Here's irony for you! Major Andre Baruch, master of ceremonies of the Army Service Forces "Visiting Hour," which originates at various army hospitals, has done so many broadcasts from service hospitals that now he's in Walter Reed Hospital, for treatment of an ailing throat. Pvt. Les Damon, formerly radio's "Thin Man," is substituting for him on "Visiting Hour."

The fifth annual Eleanor Steber Day will be sponsored by the famous soprano's home town, Wheeling, West Va., on Tuesday. A special group of favorite songs chosen by her radio audiences will be featured by Miss Steber, Metropolitan Opera soprano in the open air concert at Wheeling's Oglebay Park, as a highlight of the day's festivities.

BERGEN HELPS GLEASON
Jackie Gleason will get a royal send-off on his new comedy show which makes its debut Sunday when none other than comedian Edgar Bergen will make his

Jay C. Flippen, former baseball reporter, now emcee of "Correction Please" Saturday nights, had a job this week which he did without pay but loved it. Jay acted as master of ceremonies for the All-American Boys Baseball Game at

WBNS
1460 KILOCYCLES

Prolonged Drought Reduces Crops Of County By 50 Percent

CORN BURNED AND ALL OTHER CROPS HARD HIT

Corn Yield For Entire State 15 Percent Under Figure For 1943

Pickaway county farmers this fall probably will harvest a crop 50 percent or less of last year's, county agricultural officials said Saturday.

The prolonged drought has burned corn, hay, pastures, potatoes, soybeans, melons and other vegetables on farms and in victory gardens, officials reported, adding that "we'll be lucky if we harvest half a crop."

Corn cutting has already started in the county and workmen find the corn in very dry condition. Much of the fodder is practically useless. Later corn will not mature unless rain falls in the next day or two. Beans are not setting on and the crop is expected to be small.

Spring planted crop prospects all over Ohio declined during July due to the widespread hot, dry weather, the federal-state crop reporting service revealed Saturday. Since there has been no relief from the drought and high temperatures have continued growing crops and pastures have continued to deteriorate in most parts of Ohio, the report stated.

The state corn crop is forecast at 148,083,000 bushels, a decline of 20 percent from the forecast on July 1. This estimate is 15 percent below the 1943 crop of 174,042,000 bushels.

The winter wheat crop has generally been threshed by August 1 and a crop of 48,034,000 bushels is reported. This compares with 26,453,000 bushels last year. This year's yields average 23.5 bushels per acre as compared with 16.5 last year.

Oats declined 4 percent, during July, while barley decreased 2 percent, rye 3 percent, hay 7 percent and sugar beets 6 percent.

Hot and dry weather in July was particularly harmful to potatoes. August conditions pointed to a yield of 85 bushels per acre. This would produce approximately 6,630,000 bushels. In 1943 the crop was 8,550,000 bushels.

The soybean forecast indicates 22,160,000 bushels as compared with 27,993,000 bushels last year.

The drought also has affected the sizing of some tree fruits but on the whole fruit production forecasts show little change.

Milk production per cow on August 1 averaged 16.1 pounds. This is 6 pound below the figure for last year and .5 pound below average.

Egg production averaged 1,451 eggs per 100 layers during July, or about 3 percent less than last year's comparable period. The total production of eggs during July was 219,000,000 as compared with 224,000,000 last year.

FARMERS URGED TO FEED CORN TO CATTLE AT ONCE

WOOSTER, O., Aug. 12—Farm specialists at the Ohio experiment station in Wooster today urged farmers throughout the state to begin feeding drought-stricken Ohio corn to cattle at once to get maximum feed values from the depleted crop.

The specialists advised that as much corn as possible should be made into silage and feeding from the field should be continued as long as possible to save silage for later use.

WIFE CHARGES NEGLECT

Charging gross neglect and extreme cruelty, Chloe Pitt filed in common pleas court Friday suit for divorce from Charles Pitt. The petition states the couple was married June 22, 1939. She asks temporary and permanent alimony.

NOW HE CAN EAT

GREENVILLE, Pa.—Some persons bite their nails when they see an exciting movie, while others tear up handkerchiefs. But one Camp Reynolds soldier was so overcome at a show in the War Department Theatre that he lost both his upper and lower false teeth. The dentures were found, unbroken, after the show. An ad in the camp's Daily Bulletin reunited the soldier and his "chow crunchers."

DEAD STOCK REMOVED
Prompt and Clean Service
HOGS, SHEEP, CALVES and COLTS REMOVED

Quick Service CALL Clean Trucks
Phone 104
Reverse Charges—

Pickaway Fertilizer
A. James & Sons, Circleville, O.

(Continued from Page Four)

without the okay of manpower chief Paul McNutt.

The WPB report also took issue with Byrnes regarding manpower shortages by stating:

"The turning point of direct war requirements for manpower has been passed. With the armed forces now at peak strength, the further large releases from the munitions industries which are in prospect will be available for civilian production."

CONFLICT OVER RECONVERSION

The men who prepared this report have been doing the same job for a long time. No previous fault had been found with their work. But the report happened to be at cross-purposes with the views of some of the most important people in Washington—General Somervell, War Mobilizer Byrnes and General Electric's Charley Wilson.

They have opposed peacetime conversion now, have battled against WPB boss Donald Nelson on this point. Nelson, on other hand, maintains that it takes just about as long to tool up factories for peacetime work as it did to tool up for war. He points out that, when Henry Ford converted from the Model T Ford to Model A, it required months. Therefore, unless industry is given some chance to get ready for peacetime work now, Nelson maintains, we will have several million unemployed in a few months time.

So when their report was mysteriously yanked back and destroyed, its chief authors, Irving Kaplan and V. Lewis Bassie, resigned.

Senator Kilgore of West Virginia, believing that it will be highly demoralizing to the enemy to know the tremendous arms surpluses accumulated here, intends to ask for a thorough Senate airing of the entire question.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

NOTE—Best illustration of the conflict between big business and little business over peacetime conversion is the manufacture of electric irons. The big companies didn't want the WPB to permit electric iron manufacture, because little companies would get a head start in the peacetime market. Little companies, however, were idle. Finally, WPB permitted the small companies to make irons, but stamped the trademark of big companies on them so the latter wouldn't lose their peacetime markets.

Starting Sunday

FOLLOWING close on the heels of her outstanding performance in "A Guy Named Joe," Irene Dunne is seen as the star of "The White Cliffs of Dover," opening Sunday at the Grand theatre for a five-day run. Alan Marshall, Van Johnson and Roddy McDowall are among the impressive cast of supporting stars.

MAINLY ABOUT PEOPLE

ONE MINUTE PULPIT
Man that is in honour and understandeth not is like the beasts that perish. - Psalm 49:20.

Kiwians will be the guests of A. W. Bosworth Monday night at a chicken dinner at his home. Rev. Clarence Swearingen, pastor of the Methodist church, will be the speaker.

A livestock tour and picnic is planned Monday afternoon and evening by the Salter Creek 4-H club. The family picnic will follow the tour.

Members of the Angus Breeders' association will meet Tuesday with Dean Godden at Williamsport, it was announced Saturday.

There will be a 50-50 dance Saturday night from 9 to 12 at the Eagles Home. It is open to the public.

Mrs. James I. Smith, Jr., who has been convalescing in Berger hospital following surgery at Mt. Carmel hospital, Columbus, was removed Saturday to her home on South Court street.

Pickaway county Trustees and Clerks association will have its annual picnic, August 30, in the afternoon at Gold Cliff Park. Ice cream and cool drinks will be served by the committee, comprised of Floyd Brobst, Nelson Walters and Floyd Brigner.

Mrs. Laura Sabine, 420 East Union street, will be removed home Sunday from St. Anthony hospital, Columbus.

Mrs. William Pontius and baby will be released Sunday from Berger hospital and removed to her home in Jackson township.

Lee Shaner says he will have 3,000 bushels of peaches fit for a queen to can and to eat, ripe the first of September. Orchard located four miles south of Circleville on Rt. 23.

Mrs. Tom Willard, of Amanda RFD, was released Saturday from Lancaster Municipal hospital and removed to her home.

Mrs. James Easter, Wayne township, was released Saturday from Grant hospital and removed to her home.

Mrs. Oliver Notestons, released Saturday from Lancaster Municipal hospital, was removed to her home in Laurelville.

Miss Catherine O'Hara, who has been a patient in St. Anthony hospital, Columbus, was removed Saturday.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PARTY HONORS JOHN FLORENCE

John Florence, who has resigned as superintendent of the Washington township school to assume a similar position at Marengo, and his family were honored Friday evening at a farewell party given by the Stoutsville Sunday school.

A potluck supper was served at the home of Howard Huston, near Stoutsville. Fifty-one persons were present. Talks were given by Frank Drake, superintendent of the Sunday School, Alton Noggle, president of the Beacon Light Sunday School class of which Mr. Florence has been teacher, and Rev. Harold Dutt, pastor of the church. Response was given by Mr. Florence, who will move to Marengo Aug. 21.

WISE POINTS TO GREAT DANGER IN GRASS FIRES

Fire Chief Talmer Wise Saturday asked the cooperation of the public in reducing the grass fire hazard in Pickaway county, following an epidemic of fires Friday afternoon.

Chief Wise urged all persons to be careful with fire because of the dry conditions existing all over the county. "Carelessness causes too many fires," he said, "and sometimes it is impossible for us to answer all calls."

This happened Friday. A call to a grass fire near Ashville was received while firemen were fighting a fire on the Ralph May farm, south of the city. Later firemen were called to the Renick Dunlap farm near Kingston and then were called back to the May farm where another blaze had broken out along the railroad track.

MARRIAGE LICENSE
Application for marriage license was made Friday in probate court by William Boltenhouse, 19, Route 1, Circleville, soldier, and Emogene Webb, Mill street.

urday to the home of her brother, Henry O'Hara, Circleville Route 4.

Mrs. Russell Lane, who recently submitted to major surgery in St. Anthony hospital, Columbus, was released Saturday and removed to her home, 657 East Mound street.

ARMY COTS

Made From

HEAVY CANVAS

Extra Good Quality

$3.98

HARPSTER & YOST

HARDWARE

107 E. Main St.

Circleville

Seabees Featured

At the Circle theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday "Fighting Seabees," with John Wayne plus the Texas Rangers in "Spooktown."

NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN IN UNIFORM

John P. (Jack) Rankin, who is with a task force in the Pacific, has been on the same cruiser for more than six years. His wife, the former Evelyn Wolfe, of Circleville, lives at 1350 Washington street, San Francisco 9, Cal., and is still working for the U. S. Navy.

Private First Class James E. Callihan has returned to Upper Darby, Pa., after spending his furlough with his mother, Mrs. James Callihan, of Town street. His wife, Mrs. Ann Hott Callihan, and their daughter, of Columbus, were in Circleville with him.

Lieutenant James L. (Jack) Dewey, home from Turner Field, Ga., for a few days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Dewey, of Kinderhook, and his wife, the former Phyllis Mills, also of Kinderhook, left Friday for California. Lieut. Dewey will pilot a transport plane somewhere in the South Pacific.

Corporal Morris Gordon, son of H. M. Gordon, East Mound street, is stationed at Camp Atterbury, Ind., as a guard for German prisoners.